NEW FIRM TAKES OVER
STORE ON CENTER ST.

The Indianapolis store, which was formerly operated at No. 163 Center street, by Samuel Klein has been bought by the firm of Newsom & Vennart, two ex-service men. The store is located in the old building as it never was put up before. William H. Vennart, is probably the better known of the two proprietors to local service men. For many years he was manager of the executive secretary of Hartford Advertising Club and previous to that he was instrumental in helping to form the Ram-Locke polo team which was based in Hartford. Both he and Mr. Newsom are old 102d Regiment men, of the 26th Division.

They have located themselves in the midst of a very busy neighborhood and they intend to offer personal services to the very best merchandise.

THE DANCE PARTY

About fifteen young ladies attended a dance made partly at the home of Mr. William Anderson of Middle turnpike last evening. There were all kinds of costumes which caused much laughter. -Genes, James Neal, treasurer and Beatrice Johnson, secretary.

DANCE TONIGHT

The Women of Masonic Lodge will have a dance at Grange Hall tomorrow night which will feature old fashioned music. Wirtella's Orchestra will provide the music and Professor Bebe will present the refreshments.

BETTER MAIL SERVICE
AT SOUTH END OFFICE

Postmaster Oliver J. Toop informed today by the Railway Mail Service Department, Boston, that starting next Monday morning, a pouch will be shipped from Hartford to arrive here at 7 o'clock, daylight saving time, and a long fast mail at the South End office because in addition to first class mail that has been arriving here at 9 o'clock on Train 11A, the express office will continue the New York and Boston papers. News publishers' bundles f such papers will also accompany this pouch.

This means that the 9 o'clock mail from New York will be made up mostly of third and fourth class letters.

It is a big improvement over the old system and it was secured by Postmaster Toop after a conference with Clerk McGregor of the Hartford Advertising Club and previous to that he was instrumental in helping to form the Ram-Locke polo team which was based in Hartford. Both he and Mr. Newsom are old 102d Regiment men, of the 26th Division.
