ENTIRE TRAIN PLUNGES FROM BRIDGE INTO RIVER

Victims Trapped in Pullman Sleepers and Chair Cars While Torrential Stream Makes Rescue Work Almost Impossible.

Capser, Sept. 28.—At least 77 persons are believed to be drowned in the wreck of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy passenger train No. 30, which plunged off a bridge into Old Creek at Lockport, 15 miles east of Capser, last night.

At a preliminary investigation, Burlington and Quincy estimated that between 110 and 120 passengers were on the train when it left Capser.

Twenty-eight occupants of the Denver sleeper, which remained afloat in the water, were rescued. Other passengers were rescued and taken to Old Creek and at least eight survivors are known to have been brought to this city.

The tops of the cars, containing the dead, were barely visible in the darkness as a large crowd of rescuers and railroad workers gathered on the bank.

Of the eight survivors brought to Capser shortly after 10 a. m., one was seriously injured and hospitalized. All were suffering from various shock but their experience and found it difficult to tell a coherent story of the disaster.

The engine, tender and three cars fell into the flood, dragging the engine and tender back into the river.

The first Pullman on the train behind the chair cars was precipitated into the fast chair car. It was from this Pullman that the majority of the survivors made their escape.

THE POWER OF PRAYER THE HADLEY TOPIC AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH SERVICE

At the Mercer Hadley Mission being conducted at St. Mary's Episcopal church this week, the attention of the congregation was attracted to the beginning last Sunday. Harry Hadley who is the son of Rev. Samuel Hadley of the Holy Trinity Mission, New York City, spoke last evening on "The Power of Prayer."

He said in part: "Many people do not seem to realize that there is power in prayer. Jesus progressed in life. The story of the widow and the unjust judge shows us why we fall in prayer. Jesus said: 'We ought always to pray and not to faint. Thousands of people don't know Christ. As I go from parish to parish, visiting the prisons and talking with men in the hotels what I notice is that men don't know Christ. I took my little daughter to the rescue mission so that she might learn to hate sin. The next day she said: 'Those men were not what I thought they were. They were looking to America to show them the way. They thought we were so much better off as we had about a million women organized in the League of Women Voters in the United States. We have 10,000,000 organized women in our women's clubs and we have set in motion the work for world peace. The trouble lately has been that we have had more head than heart. Because these are the things that we must have more of.'"

After Mrs. Hadley's address Miss Marjory Cheney presented the following resolution: "Resolved, that this meeting of the Hartford County Convention of the League of Women Voters recommend to the State Convention of the Connecticut Women Voters the passage of a resolution endorsing the permanent Court of International Justice in the form proposed to the Senate by President Harding on February 21, 1922, with only such modification of the plan for the election of judges as would permit the United States to participate through representatives designated for the purpose upon an equality with the other states members of the League of Nations."

In a recess mission in New York there are about thirty men who live there, men who had been reformed. These men are praying for me now. One day when I was there a well dressed man brought in a poor drunkard, a Yale grad. This young man's father did not die, he was an official of a large New York church and was going to church with his boy but suddenly at dinner about him and driven him from the home. His father was self-righteous, satisfied with himself. I talked with the young man and knew that in that home was a mother who was praying for him. After a few weeks the boy telephoned home and the father refused to talk to him. We prayed for the father, again the boy telephoned and that time the mother answered. The boy went home, changed by his experiences at the mission and ready to lead a new life. When he reached home the father, instead of the better opinion of the door and with a downcast look seized the son's hands. Prayer had changed the boy, it had changed the father.

What is the prayer life in your home? Does your boy ever hear you pray for him? The world is sick because it doesn't know Jesus Christ. The Master said: 'Pray for one another.' Pray for the one that has John Glesson and Mrs. George H. Wilcox.
