BOY AGED 6, CHARGED WITH MOTOR VIOLATION

Hallowe'en Masquerade

North Haven, Conn., Oct. 16.—Probably for the first time in the history of automobiles in Connecticut, a six-year-old child is under arrest in North Haven today charged with violating the automobile laws.

The child, Arthur Mulligan, son of the Rev. Timothy Mulligan, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, was arrested yesterday evening by Constable Gustav Uhl, who charged the little one with operating a motor vehicle without a license required by law.

The boy was in the automobile with his father and had his hands on the steering wheel when Constable Uhl stopped the car. The father, charged with having no Connecticut license or registration, was dismissed when he proved that he had not been in Connecticut from New York, where he says he now is. The charges were brought against the small boy.

Legal circles were very much interested today in the outcome of the case, as it involved the question of a child's age.

The lawyers contend that the law requires a child of that age cannot be guilty of any crime or offense.
