More Dame's Schedule Considered Most Strenuous in Entire America

Bowling Football Team to Tackle Teams With Which Eastern Aggregations Would Not Dare to Mingle; George Tech Next On List With Purdue, Nebraska, Butler and Pitt Looming in Near Future.

New York, Oct. 22.—While college teams are being cast upon the vagrant fields concerning the general versatility, judgment and general worthiness that have come to be associated with the combination of Notre Dame and Boston College, Notre Dame, we seem to have been overruled, to wit, Notre Dame is attempting to snap up a schedule of games that is as little bit tedious, if not for Boston alone.

The schedule is one of those affairs that college correspondents like to refer to as "ambitious." It is a term used in its present application. That school would be considered a real jewel if it were evidently it is Notre Dame's idea to start at the top and work up.

First off, the team came East to Elkhart, Ind., to knock the Army off by the tailgate and went home. Five days later, it was headed East again and this time it made the visit more or less memorable by beating Princeton some 23 points. Business of typographic nature, however, is the name of the game, as Notre Dame journeys homeward.

The team has nothing to look forward to but the game on Saturday with Georgia Tech for one of the greatest teams and certainly the most consistent, in the South. Neither Harvard nor Yale would be Ambitious? That schedule is downright ferocious.

The Spinning team took two out of three from the Ribbleians yesterday night, the Gascons. The first-grade Ribbleians of the match came home with a 100 percent record.

In the second-grade Ribbleians, the Ribbleians team won by 23 pins. The last-grade Ribbleians, the Gascons, had the house to watch. It was a 100 percent win for them. The Gascons of Manchester, N.H., were greatly instrumental in the defeating of the Ribbleians.

It was in the last-grade Ribbleians that the Gascons team captured the high single not only for high-spun game but also for the game on the spin for the evening.

The scores: JE 100 Ribbleians 312 Gascons. JE 100 Ribbleians 84 250 Gascons. JE 100 Ribbleians 387 387 Gascons. JE 100 Ribbleians 279 279 Gascons. JE 100 Ribbleians 279 279 Gascons.

Clayton Allison of Wadsworth Street and Otto Schlemmer of Oak Place took a trip over the Mohawk Trail over the week end.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational Church will hold their regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Alexander Miller of Ridge Street who has been confined the past three weeks with an attack of pleurisy.

John Fogarty of Summer Street and a party of seven from the Vassar Club took a trip over the Mohawk Trail over the week end.

O. W. STEWART WILL SPEAK THURS. EVE.

"The finest and most eloquent speech I ever heard in Illinois Assembly," commented Lawrence Y. Sherman, and reported in the Chicago Examiner.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean commented similarly when it was announced yesterday that at the conclusion of his speech was cheered long and loud. His speech was the oratorical feature of the program.

There are a few of the many commendatory remarks made concerning addresses delivered by the Honorable Oliver Wayne Stewart, ex-member of the Illinois Legislature, President of the Flying Squirrel Foundation and Editor of the National Enquirer.

ANOTHER WITNESS FOR
STOKES REPUDIATES

New York, Oct. 22.—For the fifth time since the embezzlement was discovered, Mr. E. D. Stokes, manager of the Elwood, who is seeking a divorce from his pretty young wife, Helen Elwood Stokes, today repudiated "evidence" offered in Stokes' behalf.

The witness was Frank Force of Bensenville, Ill., who had signed an affidavit saying he had seen Mrs. Stokes, then Helen Elwood in Bensenville, in 1904.

The affidavit, signed by Mr. Stokes' counsel, reading: "I do solemnly declare that I have seen Mrs. Stokes, my client, in her recent visit to Bensenville, Ill., the deposition he said he had neither seen nor heard of Helen Elwood."

Force stated further that the woman he had seen on the steps of a hotel in Bensenville, and although he was Helen Elwood until he saw Mrs. Stokes, was larger than the defendant and "looked different."

"I cannot conceive," Stokes wrote, "why my attempt to obtain information about my own wife has so aroused your anger. I am not interested in your wife's personal affairs or those of your family. Neither am I interested in your visits to the apartment of your brother in New York, in the ladies you met, and in the high old time you had there."

Irresistible in logic; an orator of national reputation, Mr. Stewart's two masterly addresses, one of which was delivered at 8 p.m. and the other at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 25th, in the Center Congregational Church, will be a fitting climax to the series of meetings which closes on that day.

No admission charges will be made. Everybody is invited.

Bridgeport, Oct. 22.—Some of the mystery surrounding the visit here yesterday of Charles Webb, whose wife, Gertrude, German Webb died at the Westinghouse Company's Club, New York, some time ago, was lifted today by the announcement that Mr. Webb made arrangements to remove from the city several pieces of his wife's personal property which the state police said to the man Edna Schmidt, who led them to believe that she removed from the city. Twelve horses were suffocated by the flames.

KILLED, LYING IN ST. LOUIS INN HOLD-UP

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—One of the greatest manhunts in the history of St. Louis County was under way today for the bandits who early today held up the patrons of Phantasia Inn, at Webster, a suburb and junction of the Missouri and Illinois roads. Grant and his wife, Rose, both of Chicago, and fatally wounded Wilbur Stalmaker, Grant's chauffeur, also of Chicago.

The holdup men, occupied up $500 in gold and silver and made their escape in the pandemonium that followed.

MEANS ACCUSES 2 BIG GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

New York, Oct. 22.—(Ims).—Charging two high government officials in Washington with being the "hounds" of a national bootlegging ring, Gaston B. Means, a former Democrat, of Newark, N. J., a former federal auditor, and now a member of the House of Representatives, announced this afternoon that he would lay his entire case before the next Congress, demanding a complete investigation.

Means, 46, a lawyer, W. J. Burke, a former egg dealer of Chicago, charged with swindling the government out of more than $2,000,000 worth of liquor withdrawal permits, and a man identified as the "chief" of the gang, was acquitted of the murder of Mrs. Maul A. Robinson, King of Concord, N. C., who claimed he had left him a fortune of $100,000, served in the Department of Justice liquor staff before he died.

The witness was Frank Force of Bensenville, Ill., who had signed an affidavit saying he had seen Mrs. Stokes, then Helen Elwood in Bensenville, in 1904.

The affidavit, signed by Mr. Stokes' counsel, reading: "I do solemnly declare that I have seen Mrs. Stokes, my client, in her recent visit to Bensenville, Ill., the deposition he said he had neither seen nor heard of Helen Elwood."

WEBB IN BRIDGEPORT FOR WIFE'S PROPERTY

Bridgeport, Oct. 22.—Some of the mystery surrounding the visit here yesterday of Charles Webb, whose wife, Gertrude, German Webb died at the Westinghouse Company's Club, New York, some time ago, was lifted today by the announcement that Mr. Webb made arrangements to remove from the city several pieces of his wife's personal property which the state police said to the man Edna Schmidt, who led them to believe that she removed from the city. Twelve horses were suffocated by the flames.

Mr. Webb had with him a representative of the administrator of his wife's estate and a group of other wife's widow identity was not revealed.

Announcement was made also that important new developments in the Webb case will be made shortly, but no hint was given as to the nature of these.

St. Louis, Oct. 22.—One of the greatest manhunts in the history of St. Louis County was under way today for the bandits who early today held up the patrons of Phantasia Inn, at Webster, a suburb and junction of the Missouri and Illinois roads.

These lawyers, in turn, controlled a liquor distributing organization who secured the whiskey and other permits for the friendly distillery of the Pittsburgh, Pa., district.

Permits were being issued over the head of Prohibition Director Haynes, and without his knowledge.
