

Manchester Daily News

THE HOME PAPER
OF MANCHESTER

VOL. XXXI, No. 141 Established as Weekly 1889;
Semi-Weekly 1902; Daily 1905

SOUTH MANCHESTER, CONN., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1923

THE WEATHER
Fair tonight; Sunday increasing cloudiness followed by rain Sunday night.

TWO CENTS COPY

LONDON IS GLOOMY OVER CONFERENCE PROSPECTS

British Ambassador in Paris Requested to Point Out to Poincaré That French Term of "Present Capacity" Nullify Value of Coming Sessions—All Developments Being Held Up.

New York, Nov. 3.—David Lloyd George, Great Britain's war time premier, will say goodbye to American friends in London before his departure to Paris, to make out the proposed international separation conference.

It was learned at the Foreign Office here that the British ambassador to Paris, to make out the arrangement to induce Premier Poincaré to modify his terms and to make out the conference.

The British ambassador was told to point out to the French premier that opinion in Washington and London regards the French as being responsible for the value of the conference.

Italy Also Protests.

It is understood that Italy is strongly protesting against the French term. This aligns England and the United States against the French conditions. France has the support of Belgium and her strategic position is strengthened further by the fact that M. Barthou, foreign minister, is president of the interallied reparation commission.

Great Britain desires to write into the invitation to the United States the following language: "Inviting the Agencies out of the hands of the Interallied Commission, France is opposed to such action. France wants the conference to be held under the supervision of the Reparations Commission and along food lines laid down by the Commission."

Development Held Up.

In the meantime all developments are held up pending the return of the British representatives to Paris.

A semi-official spokesman for the British government admitted to International News that the prospects for the conference are not satisfactory.

He said England's chief hope is that the United States will make strong representations to France on her own account.

Secretary of State Hughes has already informed officials of the French Embassy in Washington that the French limitations on the conference do not satisfy the United States, but the British believe those representations were not strong enough to get the desired results.

Paris, Nov. 3.—The International Conference of Reparations probably never will come off because the British cabinet under pressure from the United States to Paris rejecting our demands for limiting the scope of the reparations, declared yesterday, "Former Foreign political writer, in the Echo De Paris today."

"Pertinax" was commenting upon the informal notification to the Secretary of State that the French, in Washington, on the embankments of the Seine, have the advantage of superior ends, an advantage that the conference by Premier Poincaré are not acceptable to the United States.

In view of "Pertinax,"

England rejecting our demands the entire question will be reopened and France will regain liberty of action and will avoid being entangled.

Official circles were unanimous in declaring that M. Poincaré will not recede and will stand by the demands outlined in his Nevers speech fixing the powers of the executive.

And This Time It Was.

The telephone girl was on her vacation. One day she was out fishing when some one in another boat called:

"Hello! Just then she got a hit."

"Line's busy," she answered.

She didn't know where she was.

She got no answer.

Manchester Daily News

DAILY NEWS LETTER

JOSEPH W. FLOOD, Publisher
25-26 Cottage Street, Near Oak
South Manchester, Conn.
Subscription $1.00 per year
Mailed at the South Manchester
Post Office
Editorial Staff
SALVATION ARMY
Business Office 1901-222

SATURDAY, NOV. 3, 1923

Family
Quarrels

"The Jamesons have asked us to do their housework. Now we'll get to know them all the nice people in town. They are a good family, though. We try to show you a good deal more respect than you usually do under any of your professors."

"I didn't know I didn't show you enough," responded his husband.

"Why, Jim, you know the way you are, but if you want to go in and good society you must, you posturing like a peacock."

"If you stop your infernal nagging you'd do things so good."

"I only wish your second wife was here. She would tell Mrs. Mansfield to stop trying her husband feeling like an abysmal failure."

The Marriages had been married three years, and were really very happy. Jim's mother had died when he was born. They had begun meeting at such other social functions as the Vice-President "cafe" for the President's admirers.

The Coolidges themselves entertained. They were elegant.

Now all that is changed. The social and political Washington have become the house.

Why this sudden change? It becomes many questions in Washington.

When a sudden stroke of fate elevated Calvin Coolidge from the comparative obscurity of the Vice-Presidency to the highest elective office in the land, he was received with open arms by the nation.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were no exception. But the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Then they got the habit of doing it.

Or course all husbands and wives disagree with each other, and the coolies were not the first to do it.

Marrying Off His Daughters

Washington, Nov. 3.—Calvin Coolidge probably is the most reserved man in politics, but he is, after all, that ever sat in the White House. He is as sparing with his words as he is with his dollars—and he has always been an economic man, largely dependent upon his wits as a public official for his living.

Yet, despite this reticence and taciturnity, more people have been won over to the White House table than any other. Calvin Coolidge has been a personal friend to many, including delivery within cooler limits of the South Manchester Post Office.

Telegraph, 1900, Room 1296

Business Office 1901-222

It Was Enough

By MORRIS SCHULZ

The four Lee girls held a perfect position in Honolulu. Their father, a Chinese, had converted him into a wealthy man, largely dependent upon his wits as a public official for his living.

The Lee house, almost a palace, was the residence of many a young man, but the White House table cost for a slight indiscretion of Carrie, who had converted him into a wealthy man, largely dependent upon his wits as a public official for his living.

Lee was there, Mrs. Miller, and the Lee girls were well known. Lee had just as good as anybody else, and she was going to have him.

Michael Shilkinovich was the son of a Russian immigrant who had come to America, and he had been distinguished among the many young women.

There was Mrs. May, Miller's daughter, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Saved by His Rival

By ANTHONY REINERT

Nobody had objected. That was all right. Eddie had been a good boy, and Eddie had brought back enough petries to keep them comfortable and start them off on the right foot.

Arriving at the next settlement, Pierre Louis had learned the truth.

"Peter was just silent when Carrie announced that she was pregnant again. He was silent, and that was just as good as anybody else, and she was going to have him."

Michael Shilkinovich was the son of a Russian immigrant who had come to America, and he had been distinguished among the many young women.

There was Mrs. May, Miller's daughter.

"It's over of things," Michael said.

"I'm not alone, but he doesn't care."

What was going on there?

Lee was there, Mrs. Miller, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.

Lee had five miles away. He went to see him, and the Lee girls were well known.</

NOTES ON PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT
not exceeding two inches, will be run at the top of "Newspaper" at $1.00 per inch each insertion.

PUBLIC WORSHIP

METHODIST CHURCH
Music by Oak Parkers. Dancing
West Side Room, Monday, Nov. 5, $2.50. Gold pieces for greatest and finest costumes.

PONTAINE'S ORCHESTRA
Professor Bach Preceptor.

NEWSY NOTES

Miss Jessie Flote, assistant principal of the Eighth District School, accompanied by George McAdam, and Sherwood Beecher motored today to Middlebury, Vt., for the week-end. They went in Miss Beecher's motor touring car.

Even a Wyllie-King antelope feels frisky this crisp weather, so Mrs. Albert White found the truth to be, when she parked her car on Oak street last evening and went into one of the stores for a coat. When she came out, she saw that her car was making its way down Oak street and finally, it made its way along another car parked at the curb. Fortunately, she did not have to either stop, but in trying to catch it, Mrs. White tripped and fell and received a few scratches on her nose. The emergency brake had been recently repaired and did not catch at first.

Peter J. Smith and P. J. Ryan of Ridge street and Herbert Johnson of Elm terrace left yesterday by auto for Boston where they are attending the Textile Exhibition. They will return tomorrow evening.

Another public while will be held at the Wood Side Room, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be prizes and refreshments as usual.

Mr. Jennie Fay of 49 Laurel street will leave next Saturday for Salisbury, Maryland, where she will spend the winter with friends.

Orford Parish Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet with Mrs. A. J. Straw at 76 Woodbridge street Tuesday afternoon, November 6th. Mrs. Charles Allen of Terryville will speak on the topic "Old Letters."

The son of Miss Mary C. McConnell, daughter of General M. McConnell, will be pleased to learn that she is one of the two freshman who has been admitted to the college of music of the College of New Rochelle, New Rochelle, N. Y.

She is also a member of the Manhattan Club and harpist in the college orchestra.

BURGESS-SOUTHWICK
The wedding of William T. Burgess, son of Samuel Burgess, of Glastonbury, to Elizabeth H. Southwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Southwick, of Lawrence street, Hartford, took place Thursday evening at the home of his bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manford W. Schub, pastor of the Memorial Baptist Church of Hartford officiated. Following the marriage service, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess started on a honeymoon trip to New York City and Washington, on their return from which they will be at home at No. 17 Trotter street, South Manchester.

CITY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The Manchester City Club in its annual election, Thursday evening, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President: Harold Douglass; first vice president, Thomas Brewster; second vice president, Fred Ballou; treasurer, Walter Brooks; financial secretary, Robert N. Veech; treasurer, James McVeigh. A large attendance of members was present, and the results of the election were discussed. During the past year, the City Club has held some extraordinary events, one being held last Spring, when many stars and own officials, both local and national, were holding during Centennial Week, when many of the old time members of the club were present to renew acquaintances.

VETERAN COMPOSITOR DEAD

Winston, Conn., Nov. 6.—M. Clay Maywell, for 4 years a compositor on the Meriden Record and for 20 years secretary of the local typographical union, died at his home in Meriden, Conn., yesterday morning. He was 72 years old. Mr. Maywell injured his knee two years ago while working on a table at the Lyman Manufacturing Company by falling into a Lewis street, given by Miss Nellie M. Keith.

Second Congregational Church
Rev. R. A. Bourne, Pastor.
The music at the Sunday morning Service of Worship will be as follows:

Prelude—Piano—Lemaigne
"My Father"—Shackley
Offerings—"Lead Us" Jerome
Faith—Lemaigne

Sunday, Nov. 18—For God and Country—Lemaigne

1. Education in the home.
2. Education in the school.
3. Education in the church.

Slogan—No illiteracy by 1927.
Slogan—Godly nature cannot fail.

Life, liberty and justice
2. How the Constitution guarantees these.

3. Revolutionary and Radical movements—these guides to progress.

4. Security and opportunity.

5. Schools—public and private.

6. Children today, citizens tomorrow.

7. Help the immigrants and aliens to become Americans.

8. Take an active interest in governmental affairs.

9. Music influence upon a nation.

10. The hour of the Senior Class meeting has been changed to 6:45 o'clock (Sunday evening). The topic will be "The Church Today." Pastoral Note—will include.

Prayer meeting is held on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Ladies' Missionary Auxiliary will meet Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John M. Williams, 30 Holden street.

The General Conference of the Congregational Union of Connecticut, its 50th Annual Meeting in Naugatuck on Saturday and Wednesday, November 6 and 7.

Topic: The Progress of China.

Speaker: An Lee

Sunday 12:00 o'clock

Vespers Five O'clock

Prayer—Priests March from Athaliah

Mendelsohn

Vesper Anthem—Like Silent Springs—Shelley

Evening Prayers

Saint-Paul's Chorus from Tannhauser

Brass Quartet

Scripture Lesson

Hymn 689

Selection—Ir. Absence Buck

Brass Quartet

Address—Silence

Super Hymn—Now on Land and Sea

Be Descending

Dykes

Chant Response

Postlude—The Lost Chord

Sullivan

Brass Quartet

Notes—

Monday 7:00—Daisy Troop 1.

Girl Scouts

Tuesday 7:30—The King's Daughters will hold a work meeting with the leader at 114 Chestnut street.

Thursday 7:30—Those who have been asked to take part in the annual rally of the King's Daughters will meet in the chapel for rehearsal. This is important. Everyone report.

Friday 7:00—The Boy Scouts will meet in the Chapel.

St. Mary's Episcopal Church

Rev. J. Stuart Neill, Rector

Sunday, November 4th—Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost.

9:30 a. m.—Sunday School

10:45 a. m.—Morning Prayer, Service and Holy Communion

3:30 p. m.—Highland Park Sunday School

7:00 p. m.—Evening Prayer and Fervor

Sermon Topics: A. M.—"The Christian Belief"; F. M.—"Christ in the Heart."

Regular meetings of organizations during the week.

Thursday, 7:30 p. m. at the Rectory Adult Confirmation Class.

Friday, 5:00 p. m. at the Rectory Junior Confirmation Class.

South M. E. Church

Rev. Joseph Cooper, Pastor

Music—Worship 10:45

Prayer—Adoration—Shelley

Hymns

Prayer ending with Lord's Prayer

Anthem—Abide With Me, Shelley

Scriptural Reading 44—Gloria Patri

Scripture Reading John 1:35 and Anthem—Lands of God—Klein

Osterville Notes

Scriptural Reading—members

Communion service

Postlude—Andante op. 26

Beethoven

12:15—Sunday Bible School

6:30—Evening Lenten Devotional Meeting led by Miss Marjorie Keith.

Topic: The Prayer of Jesus.

7:00—Evening service. Pastor beginning with the reading of the Epistles.

Tonight "Why I am a Christian."

Program for the Week

Monday 8:30—Sunday School

6:30—Evening Lenten Devotional

Meeting led by Miss Marjorie Keith.

Topic: The Prayer of Jesus.

7:00—Junior Epworth League.

8:30—Fellowship Hour.

9:30—Scriptural Reading.

10:30—Communion service.

A large attendance of members was present, and the results of the election were discussed. During the past year, the City Club has held some extraordinary events, one being held last Spring, when many stars and own officials, both local and national, were holding during Centennial Week, when many of the old time members of the club were present to renew acquaintances.

EDUCATION WEEK PROGRAM

the uneducated.

1. Let every citizen teach one

literates.

2. Education in the home.

3. Education in the school.

4. Education in the church.

Slogan—No illiteracy by 1927.

Slogan—Godly nature cannot fail.

5. Life, liberty and justice.

6. How the Constitution guarantees these.

7. Revolutionary and Radical movements—these guides to progress.

8. Security and opportunity.

9. Schools—public and private.

10. Children today, citizens tomorrow.

11. Help the immigrants and aliens to become Americans.

12. Take an active interest in governmental affairs.

13. Music influence upon a national culture.

14. The great need of doors.

15. Nature Association of Washington, which calls upon people to register with it a protest against this terrible law.

EDUCATION WEEK PROGRAM

the uneducated.

1. Let every citizen teach one

literates.

2. Education in the home.

3. Education in the school.

4. Education in the church.

Slogan—No illiteracy by 1927.

Slogan—Equality of opportunity in education for every American boy and girl.

5. Rural schools, city schools, colleges, universities.

6. A public library for every community.

7. Children today, citizens tomorrow.

8. The flag—the emblem of the country.

9. Playgrounds.

10. Physical education and hygiene.

11. The great need of doors.

12. Nature Association of Washington, which calls upon people to register with it a protest against this terrible law.

EDUCATION WEEK PROGRAM

the uneducated.

1. Let every citizen teach one

literates.

2. Education in the home.

3. Education in the school.

4. Education in the church.

Slogan—No illiteracy by 1927.