COOLIDGE FINISHES HIS CONGRESSIONAL MESSAGE

First State Paper of New Executive in Hands Already—Expected to Endorse World Court—Will Touch on Federal Judgeships.

Washington, Nov. 28.—President Coolidge's first message to Congress which is awaited by the nation with more interest than has been placed in any state paper in years was finally completed today and placed in the hands of the public printer, a week in advance of its delivery.

Usual ceremony

Usual ceremony has been observed in its preparations and not even the President's closest advisers are familiar with all the provisions of the document. The President has consulted widely but he has written it himself, and as finished it represents the wishes of many of the administration's best minds, supplemented by Mr. Coolidge's own observations on the state of public opinion.

From reliable sources it is understood that Mr. Coolidge has succeeded in effecting a compromise on one of the most politically troublesome policies he has had to deal with in the preparation of his first message—the issue presented by the question of American entrance into the permanent court of international justice organized under and controlled by the League of Nations.

To Endorse World Court.

President Coolidge is expected to endorse American entrance into the court, as proposed by the late President Harding but accompanied his endorsement with the recommendation that certain restrictions be attached that are calculated to remove some of the present features of the court that are "objectionable" to many Republicans.

To Touch Federal Judgeships.

These "objectionable" features are mainly concerned as to the manner of election of judges. As the court is now constituted, the judges are appointed by the league council and assembly, and to a considerable extent exercise supervision over its entire structure—a fact which has provoked the opposition of the present when it was first brought forward by the late President Harding.

Has Constitutional Court's Fate.

Mr. Coolidge has been in frequent consultation the past few days with some of the court's most bitter foes, and as a result of his conferences, it is understood he has decided to recommend American adherence to the court on condition that the power to elect judges be transferred from the league to the court itself, or proposed in a separate international committee to be appointed by the participating powers. This would automatically remove most of the objections voiced against the proposal by Senate Republicans.

Remove League Domination.

It is believed that with these conditions, which would largely remove the court from the league's domination, the present opposition to the court would gradually disappear and American entrance into it would become negotiable upon the willingness of the present power to make the changes in its constitution that are desired by this government.

Whether the powers would be willing to do this remains to be seen.

In any event the advisers of Mr. Coolidge believe an acceptable compromise has been found in this measure of procedure—the public opinion party, through President Coolidge's world court of justice and at the same time the "irreconcilables" are pleased by the virtual removal of the court from the league's jurisdiction.

Democrats Sit Tight Enjoying Threatened Republican Warfare

Washington, Nov. 28.—While the Democrats are sitting tight and watching with keen enjoyment the troubles the Republicans are having in trying to organize the fourth Congress, the open warfare between "Progressives" and "Conservatives" continued today on both sides of the capital.

A small but militant group of Progressives on the Senate side is in open revolt against the decision of administrative leaders to allow Senator Cummins, Republican of Iowa, to retain both his important jobs, the presidency of the Senate and the chairmanship of the Interstate Commerce committee.

On the House side a larger and equally militant group headed by Representative John M. Nelson, Republican of Wisconsin, is insisting that far-reaching changes be made in the House rules so that "Progressive" legislation cannot be smothered in committee without reaching a vote on the floor.

Peace conferences on both sides of the Capitol are on the order of the day.

The Senate Progressives were particularly hostile today because they charged administrative leaders had endorsed Cummins for both jobs merely to keep Senator La Follette, Republican of Wisconsin, out of the chairmanship of the Interstate Commerce committee.

REAL OLD FASHIONED DANCE
K. of C. Hall
By Campbell Council No. 1000
NOVEMBER 29TH
Fontaine's Five-Piece Orchestra
PROF. BEVER, Promoter
Admission, including tax 50 cents.

NEWSY NOTES

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE
The Manchester Daily News will be published tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day.

The School Street Recreation Center will be open on Thanksgiving Day from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and from 6:00 p. m. to 10:00 p. m. The West Side Rec. will be closed all day.

At the meeting of Ward Cheney Camp United Spanish American War Veterans last evening, Miss Dorothy Hynes of Charter Oak Street presented with a live 16-pound turkey. James Burke of Park street was given a $5.00 gold piano. The veterans have been collecting funds to pay expenses of delegates to the State Convention of the Order. Miss Hynes and Mr. Burke assisted very expertly in this endeavor by the members of Ward Cheney Camp.

Feed Chamberlain of Pleasant street will spend Thanksgiving with his son in Reddport.

The annual Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Congregational church tomorrow, a service at 10 o'clock. Rev. John E. Duxbury of the North Methodist church will preach on the topic "Thanks for Ordinary Things."

The Knights of Columbus will hold a real old fashioned and modern dance in the K. of C. Hall tomorrow evening. Fontaine's Orchestra of five pieces will furnish music for the dancing and Professor Beebe will be the promoter.

Hose Company No. 1 will hold their annual dance at Cheney Hall this evening, and a large attendance is looked for as usual. The proceeds of this dance are used to pay the necessary expenses of the hose house and also to buy new equipment.

Dr. LeVerne Holmes and Dr. G. A. F. Lindberg, will have charge of emergency calls tomorrow, according to an announcement of the Manchester Medical Association.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kinslaw of Spring street left today to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Perry of Concord, N. H.

Miss Ada Simpson of Spring street is spending the Thanksgiving holiday with relatives at Springfield, Mass.

Miss Nellie Duplanté is convalescing at the Memorial Hospital from a slight operation performed Monday by Dr. LeVerne Holmes of Manchester and Dr. Jarvis of Hartford.

Rev. and Mrs. Watson Woodruff and three children are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with relatives in Berlin.

Miss Charlotte Johnson of Hazen street left today for New Britain where she will spend Thanksgiving with relatives. Miss Johnson is well known among all the patients at the Memorial Hospital as she is always kindly and cheerfully engaged in keeping the rooms in a spic-span condition and she will now enjoy a well-earned holiday.

Miss Marion Harvey of Newtonville, Mass., is now in charge of the laboratory work at the Memorial hospital, having recently been engaged as technician.

It is rather difficult to find the "Cider" at the Memorial Hospital as one has to peep around huge "mums" or look back of bouquets or roses and carnations or really find the room being a vegetable conservatory of flowers sent in by kind and thoughtful friends while baskets of fruit, boxes of candy, dates, and other edibles are temptingly piling up, encouraging her to a quick recovery. However she states she is having the time of her life and is bidding an "ad home" reception every day and evening.

Information received from the Memorial Hospital is that L. C. Clifford, the popular local manager of the Southern New England Telephone Company is feeling very much better today, he having had many refreshing nights' sleep.

MODERN WOODMEN TO STAGE MINSTREL SHOW

On Wednesday evening, December 12, South Manchester Camp No. 9700, M. W. A. will give a minstrel show and dance in Cheney Hall. The Royal Minstrels and Entertainers of Hartford with a cast of 20 will be featured in the entertainment and Wirtall's Orchestra will furnish the music.

In the Royal Minstrel line-up will be seen Robert M. Feldman, an interactor, and the entomus will include: Robert Hilditch, Hal Doane, Eddie Pearl, Les Levy, Wally Barbank and Wilfred Turner.

This aggregation of minstrel men gave an entertainment recently before a meeting of South Manchester Camp in this town and it made such a hit that arrangements were made to give the public of Manchester a chance to enjoy it likewise.

ORFORD CHAPTER TO MEET NEXT MONDAY

On next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Orford Parish Chapter, D. O. C. will hold a meeting in the Center Church parlors. At this meeting, Mrs. Mary Karise, state chairman of the Elm Island League Christmas Association will be the speaker and she will tell of plans for giving the emigrants at the Gateway of America a real well come to this last night of the coming holiday season.

Every member is requested to bring something in the way of gifts for the women and children who will be detained at Elm Island over the coming Christmas season. She will also tell of the conditions of those who have to wait before being admitted to the United States, and the many hardships they have to endure. The meeting will really be well worth attending and all members are requested to be present.

ADJUTANT HEWITT IN REVIVAL CAMPAIGN

A large crowd attended the revival service that was conducted in the Salvation Army Citadel last night. Adjutant Samuel Hewitt, a revivalist of note received a great hand. He came to the local Citadel after a successful week in Worcester where he had many converts. The service was held before Adjutant Harry White and this morning that since he has been in this town he has never seen a visitor so excited with a message as was given to Adjutant Hewitt last night. The adjutant seemed to "take" with the local Salvationists.

Two converts were added to his roll when the services were over. This is considered very good for the first evening. The senior band made a very creditable showing with their fine music.

Adjutant Hewitt will stay here the entire week and the public is invited to hear him. The boy's band will render the music tonight. The senior band will be called upon for the Thanksgiving services.

On Friday a unique organization will show their wares. There are 22 young people in the local corps that are banded together under the name of the "Songsters." They were very prominent in music affairs of the local corps some time ago, but for some reason or other the plan was dropped. They will give a performance to all the public school children of Manchester Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The senior band will perform on Saturday. On Sunday the junior and senior bands and the Songsters will combine in a musical entertainment.

Plans are also being formulated whereby the local corps will give two big sacred concerts in which a galaxy of local talent will take part. The details are not completed as yet but when they are The Daily News will supply the information.

Local Salvationists are requested to note that Adjutant Samuel Hewitt is the guest of Mr. Jones of 351 Center street. Anyone that wants to hear more about the adjutant's mission can see him there. He is ready and willing to answer any question pertaining to the revivalist movement.

The Manchester Floral Store in the Keith Block on Main street opposite Park, have a very attractive display of chrysanthemums, pansies, gladioli, and other lovely flowers for the Thanksgiving festival.

Five Baked Girls Quilts for the Relief of the Poor, are being made by the women of the local corps, according to an expert, so they are quicker in movement.

NORTH END FIREMEN CALLED LAST EVENING

The firemen of the North End were called out to fight a fire at 5:11 last night. The blaze was in the home owned by Miss Catherine Sullivan on Oakland street and was of long duration, the record not amounting until more than a hour had elapsed.

It is some wonder the fire got under way in the kitchen and was blazing merrily when the firemen arrived. Very little property damage was done as the water from the fire hose will make the total damage amount to the least sum of money.

The new foam water worked to perfection. It could be heard distinctly all over the South End. It is a vast improvement over the other fire alarm signal.

MANY READERS FIND THE MISSING WORD

Advertising Contest Increases in Interest and Additional Contestants Are Being Added to List.

The second day in the Missing Word Contest of The Daily News ended last evening at five o'clock and strange to say, more replies were received for the first time than for the second. The Contest Editor has not been open to this morning — that individual who has got to have some sleep over this contest this evening and credit the morning word to those who were correct in finding the elusive word.

Next Look Sharp

The missing word was in the advertisement of "Metter's Smoke Shop last Thursday and the Contest Editor knows from the replies all ready opened that several did not find the correct answer. The sentence containing the missing word read as follows: "We recommend them highly because of the excellent fabrics from they are made and superior workmanship." The correct sentence as contained in their copy read: "We recommend them highly because of the excellent fabrics from WHICH they are made and superior workmanship."

"Which" was the missing word. Owing to the fact that tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day there will be no issue of The Daily News. The missing word advertisement appears in this afternoon's paper and try to find the word which has been purposely left out.

If you find it send a letter to the Contest Editor, Manchester Daily News, giving the word which has been omitted, from which advertisement the omission occurred and also give the sentence as it should appear properly. It's interesting and fascinating!

MANISOME FLORAL DISPLAY

A flower show in this town is something novel, but that is just what is in the Park Hill Flower Shop. This store looks just like a flower show since they received the entire stock of flowers for Thanksgiving.

"Chrys" 'entends a corolla invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Manchester to visit his flower shop tonight and look over his wonderful display. There is no obligation to buy any of the flowers. The invitation is extended for the sole reason that Manager Pentland wants the public to see what a real flower show looks like.

The following hours will be observed at the South Manchester Post Office tomorrow, (Thursday) Thanksgiving Day:
CITY CARRIER Delivery—None.
RURAL CARRIER Delivery—None.
Parcel Post Delivery—Until 12 o'clock noon.
Money Order Window—Closed all day.

BAGGED TWO COONS
William Blumson of Gardner street had pretty good luck on a hunting trip in Andover last night getting two coons. This morning he had them weighed and he tipped the scales at twenty pounds while the other weighed twelve pounds.

Stamford, Conn., Nov. 28.—A movement is on foot here to recognize the bravery of Theodore Goetz, chauffeur for J. A. G. Davis of South Beach, who late yesterday plunged fully clothed into the river and was swept out into the sound when Goetz rescued him. Goetz applied first-aid methods after he reached the shore and restored the boy to whose mother whose screams for help attracted Goetz. He was driving along the Post road.
