COOLIDGE'S 1924 PLATFORM IS CONCEDED TO LIE IN MESSAGE

His Selection of South Dakota Preference Convention and Address to Congress Yesterday Stands Before Country as Open Avowal of Candidacy—G. O. P. Leaders Cock Ears to Westward.

Washington, Dec. 7.—President Coolidge's platform for 1924, which he has taken to the nation, has no political future, will offend the country and will not stand a chance of candidacy well into coming year, perhaps within week.

His message to Congress is his platform, and his selection of the South Dakota preference convention gives him the opportunity to impress this recommendation while a series of outstanding issues still fresh in the minds of the people.

To Accept South Dakota Support

He has given up his supporters in South Dakota, giving them the now scarcely needed assurance that he is the candidate for the White House in 1924.

The White House has its ear cocked to the westward today, to cause the reaction to the President's utterances. Comment in the capital and the hundreds of members of Congress are talking hangover about the capital has already been digested and digested.

The news of this comment caused little surprise to the Republicans, conservatives, approved the Republican Progressives disappeared and the Democrats roundly attacked the measure as a capitulation to "big business." This was expected. Now the White House wants to hear from the country.

Editorial Comments

Editorial comments from newspaper parts of the country, was referred to a Washington today and subjected to the microscopic analysis of the President's political advisers.

On the white, they announced that they had been digested and digested.

They recognized these political advisors to the President said that at least two respects Mr. Coolidge has proved Senator Hiram Johnson, who only opposed the proposal, that far, was, indeed, which the eloquent Californian can turn into great political capital.

These are the World Court and Senate.

The President endorsed the World Court, somewhat gaudily, it is true, but still an endorsement, and he proclaimed himself against the bonds from the outside.

The international committee, Mr. Coolidge to a vote, the bill when passed by Congress, as it certainly will be.

Editorial comments, President Johnson is anxious,

he is for the Soldiers' Bonus.

He probably will be able to find many other issues in the President's platform.

It is perhaps significant that Johnson has been fortified with the knowledge of the contents of the Coolidge message for a week.

Thus, the day of its delivery, he was in the Soldiers' Bonus.

He probably will be able to find many other issues in the President's platform.

AGE GIVES ITS HEART TO BUSINESS— YOUTH DEMANDS ONLY LOVE

(Copyright 1922 by International News Service)

New York, Dec. 7.—Age gives its heart to business—youth demands only love.

Except this philosophy as the answer to her marital unhappiness, Elaine Lee Harris, 27-year-old Southern beauty, arrived in New York yesterday to be represented in the Superior Court and defend the amount suit brought by her husband, Beverly D. Harris, former business partner of James A. and Charles C. Hobart.

Mrs. Harris was formerly known as the best dressed woman in New York.

Harris' $1,000 Year

My husband demanded that I be known as such—that is why we lived at the rate of $136,000 a year, spending $1,500 a week on groceries.

Elaine Harris said.

"Now I am penniless, tradesmen banding me with demands, and I will be unable to earn much longer. The secret of my life is gone."

The strikingly attractive South beauty, who—while the draw of the Lees of Mayfair, from which stock she says she comes, remains—was in a shape that would make a man's mouth water.

"I wanted to avoid publicity," she said, explaining the name.

"Miss E. Evans" on the Vanderbilt register has a long list of men.

"I am not a penniless," Mrs. Harris said.

"I am a penniless tradesman banding me with demands, and I will be unable to earn much longer. The secret of my life is gone."

False Accusations

I have been accused of being a daughter of a Mexican Le-saints," Mrs. Harris said.

"I am not a penniless tradesman banding me with demands, and I will be unable to earn much longer. The secret of my life is gone."

Pity Rich Men's Wives

It is a pity that rich men's wives are always left out.

Mrs. Harris was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. S. C. Lee.

Local Red Men Wallop Invaders From North End Last Evening

Indian Braves Have Little Trouble in Collecting Prize Money From Joe Hartley's Gang — Gustafson Stars With 121 Pins — Stratton and Wilson Also Bowl Well—Louis Genovese Surprises His Friends.

That the South had its right with the fighting spirit at all times was shown last night at Murphy's Bowlers' Hall, Hartley's Five from the North End of the town tied across the town to clash with their southern rivals—the Indians from the Iroquois of Independent Order of Red Men. When the game was over, the Indians were added it was seen that the North End bunch were the rear end of the procession. The Red Men scalped the pins in turns, the Indians taking 131 pins, the Indians 115. These 8 pins were taken by the Red Men. Men won their $50 by getting 80 more sticks of timber than the invaders.

The visitors couldn't hit the wood in the first game as the Indians were "new" to them. They lost the opening game by the score of 121 to 115.

It was in the first game that all the best scores by the Red Men were pulled off the spotter. Gustafson ran up his total to 121, Stratton hit 115, Alceo, one of the strike members and Dominic Boletti was credited with 105. Joe Hartley showed up his own game by hitting the ball through the pins.

The Indians' game was as the scores on the Red Men's team dropped a triflfe. Wilson hit the wood for 115 for the winners. Hartley shot for the North End with the score of 115.

The finale was where Frank Cervini made a wonderful and spectacular attempt to take the high singles honors of the evening. He hit 120, losing out to one pin.

The finale was where the North End gang and really well in the last game. He is credit-
