Selectmen Vote on Building Lines

(Continued From Page One) proposed structure goes beyond the blanket building line. As Mr. Percival's plans contemplated building outside the blanket line as the matter was referred to the selectmen and a hearing called to give the residents and property owners on Pearl street as opportunity to make whether they approved of the move.

LOOKING BACK

(Continued From Page 7) Militia if they so desire. As the old men drop out it is expected that new men will enlist. At present the State Militia men are without arms and state uniforms. These will soon be provided. Their Springfield rifles have been turned back to the State by the United States Military Department and will doubtless be redistributed to the first Regiment.

THROWING MILL

The residents of Parker street petitioned the board of selectmen for street lights. There are but five houses in the section affected and the board felt that the condition was similar to that existing on Fern street where no poles had been erected by the lighting company. If the five residents of Parker street in the section referred to want lights it will be necessary for them to meet the expenditure of erecting a pole there.
