Protecting Your Family's Interests Estate Management Costs

Needless delays caused by unfamiliarity with an executor's duties, unwise investments, mismanagement of funds, illness or incapacity-these usually result in serious losses for the beneficiaries of estates.

Executorship demands an unusual equipment and training which are rarely found in one individual. This Company, through years of practical experience, knows how to proceed without delay. Its work in administering estates is conducted without interruption, systematically and economically, for the best interests of the beneficiaries.

The fee for acting as executor is fixed by law and is the same whether an individual or this Company administers your estate. We will be glad to explain to you the cost of our services in connection with estate matters.

You can obtain interesting information about the conservation of estates by securing a copy of our booklet, "Safeguarding Your Family's Future."
