

Notices of Public Entertainment, not exceeding two inches, will be run at the top of "Newsy Notes" at $1.00 per inch each insertion.

SUNDAY SERVICE

NEWSY NOTES

Chas. McLean, author of their regular meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock in Tinker Hall.

Mrs. John Sullivan of Ridge street has entered St. Francis Hospital, Hartford, where she will undergo an operation for a broken wrist which she suffered six weeks ago and which has not been set up.

Ray Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren of Cooper Hill, was away, recently coming from an attack of typhoid fever.

Rev. W. H. Bush, district superintendent of the Southern New England Conference, was a visitor in town yesterday.

George E. Hunt of Elm Street has been confined to his home this week with an attack of the grippe.

REC TEAM LOSES

The Rec team lost a close game to Middletown at that city last night by the score of 29 to 26. Herbert Angell was the star for the Rec.

Ed. (20) Middletown (29)

Ballehiser..... Murphy

Night Forward..... McCabe

Angeli..... Left Forward..... McCabe

Gustafson..... Center..... McCabe

Benson..... Right Guard..... McCabe

Cervini, Nels..... Cahill

Field Goals..... McCabe 8, Angel 7,

Carson 3, Gustafson 2, Benson 2,

Hallehiser, Murphy

Foul Goals, McCabe 3, Carson 3;

Referee, J. Carlson.

ATLAS TEAM WINS

The local Atlas team defeated the Pequonnock team of kickers in a scoring bee at that town last night. The score was 29 to 26.

Atlas 29, Pequonnock 26.

The Atlas team was the victor through the game, the team having excelled at any stage of the thrilling struggle on the crackling court.

The lineup and score follows:

Atlas (29) Pequonnock (26)

Pendleton..... Sheridan

Left Forward..... McCabe

Mullins..... Cunnigham

Night Forward..... McCabe

Stone..... Center..... Leamy

Right Guard..... Leamy

Hunt..... Left Guard..... Leamy

Right Guard..... Leamy

Field Goals, Pendleton 6, Mullins 3, Cunnigham 3, Cunningham 2, Hunt 8, Leamy 2.

Foul Goals, Cunningham 6, Stone 5, Hunt 4, Leamy 4, Sherman 2, Mullins 2.

Referee, Peary.

Tuberculosis Meeting Held Last Night

The annual meeting of the members of the Tuberculosis Free Bell Fund of Cheney Brothers was held last night at the Machine Shop Room, 100 Broad St., Boston, and President L. C. Cheney read the reports of the work that this fund has been able to do. The finances are very good and it is expected that more good work of this kind will be done in the employ of the silk firm than in the employ of the tubercular, who will be done as the need for arises.

Contributions to this fund are made voluntarily by the employees of the silk firm, and former members, only too well know that this work is needed in every community, no matter what the size.

State Order of Vasa Will Hold Convention in Town

(Continued from Page One)

Meeting Dec. 31, 1923, the local lodge paid out $1,375 in sick benefits.

Many prominent Swedes are members.

Scandinavia has a membership of 775 in Manchester and includes practically all of the prominent Swedish residents of the town. The fact that the lodge number is 23 shows that Manchester was one of the pioneer towns of the state of the social order.

A CORRECTION

This paper was informed yesterday that the funeral services were at the house of the late Mrs. Annie Warwick, whose funeral is to take place tomorrow, was to be private. This was a mistake and the correction is greatly appreciated.

CHURCH OF THE NAZAREN

C. F. AUSTIN, Pastor

Saturday—8:30, P. M., prayer—A special call.

Sunday—10 A. M., prayer—10:30 A. M., preaching, 12 M. Sunday School

Church of the Nazarene is pronounced some other way.

MEETING

1:30 P. M. preaching.

A call to prayer for the whole week—object for the coming revival meeting—February 3-10.

Rev. John Thomas was born in Wales, converted in London, at the time he was a successful merchant. God called him into the work of the ministry and he has made no mistake. He has preached throughout the British Isles and in Korea. His messages are full of illustrations from those countries. No one can afford to miss his meetings.

He is a man of great life. Many have been helped by hearing him. His experience of being beaten and left for dead on the streets of Korea, the condition he was left in, how the Lord saved him, etc., are a few of his interesting things he tells. Mr. Thomas had a wide experience and he will help anybody that hears him.

Regular meeting for the week.

Christian Endeavor—11:30 A. M.

Prayer—12:30 P. M.

Wednesday—7:30, Mid-week Prayer meeting.

Friday—7:30, Club meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—School 12 o'clock.

Prayer—5 o'clock.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Saturday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Sunday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Wednesday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Thursday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Friday—8:30, Prayer meeting.

Manchester In The Sporting World

Rec Team Comes From Behind and Downs Flashy Holyoke Five

"Snooks" Angel Scores Nine Field Baskets—Tessier of Invaders Shines Throughout Contest With Fine Floor Work.

In a basketball contest, replete with thrills, the local "Rec" five emerged the winner over the crack Mohawks of Holyoke at the YMCA Saturday evening. By a score of 33 to 28, the Holyoke team put up a fine brand of ball and it was only after a great battle that the "Rec" boys won out. This was the twenty win of the season for the locals who have been setting a fast pace this year.

"Snooks" Angel was the outstanding star of the locals in the scoring line, being credited with nine field goals from the free throw line. The visitors started a fast pace at the start and managed to hold the lead at half time, 15 to 14. Ellert R. F., Roy Tessier, the work of Tessier, left guard for the Mohawks was the key to the successful showing the Holyoke team put up. His dribbling and flashy work shone throughout the contest.

Sounds Call to Duty.

He did not outline a play when this fortuitous state of affairs might be brought about. The Senator was the chief reason for the down fall of the Mohawks. He, although not figuring heavily in the scoring, played a whale of a game and was indirectly responsible for several of the baskets scored by his team mates. The defensive work of Benson and Roy Tessier was in top order and the invaders were kept in check in the closing minutes of play when a short rally would have reversed the score. The fans went away well pleased with the exhibition.

The summary:

Holyoke (28)

F.G.	F. Total
Ellert R. F.	4
Roy L. F.	3
Grosbeak C.	2
Torni E. G.	1
Tessier L. G.	1
Total	11
Rec' Five (33)	16
F.G. F. Total	16
Angel R. F.	9
Ballester L. F.	3
Gustafson C.	1
Norris C.	0
Cervini L. G.	0
Benson E. G.	0
Total	13

Referees—Crockett.

RED MEN LOSE TO WESTERLY FIVE

(Special to the News) Westerly, R. I., Jan. 28.—The Red Men Independents of South Manchester, Conn., were defeated in a basketball game here Saturday evening by the local town team. The final score found the Westerly boys on the long end of a 24 to 14 score.

The home team put up a fine exhibition which pleased the large crowd who witnessed the encounter. Shorten and McCloy, local backcourt men for Westerly were the leading scorers. Several of their long shots were of the spectators.

Mullens who made a bit big with his playing here some time ago with the Manchester Atlas was the best for the losers. Hoffart and Mantelli of the Hartford Dixies also put in a good showing.

To the joy of the spectators, Westerly's manager, John A. Heywood, John McGrath, Christy Mathewson and Irvin Gold.

SPORT SPARKS

Experts say Whaley Witt is best in big leagues at playing the balls off fence. He got lots of practice doing that in the old days of Philadelphia.

Twelve of Man-o'-War's cuts will start their careers next season, but the whole gang of them will have a hard job winning as many races as Pop did.

Boxer Los Angeles fighters has seven bouts in a row. With a mattress padding his jaw no man can knock him out.

Manager of Phillips' box has three like that will win 20 games next season. Three more like that the team will climb out of last place.

Now is the time for all concession hall players to take the kids out of their arms and the drinks off their menus.

Professional wrestler says the average moving picture portrays many braves that he is thinking of applying for the leading role.

Local boxer who will win 20 games next season. Three more like that the team will climb out of last place.

Now is the time for all concession hall players to take the kids out of their arms and the drinks off their menus.

Professional wrestler says the average moving picture portrays many braves that he is thinking of applying for the leading role.

Local boxer who will win 20 games next season. Three more like that the team will climb out of last place.

Now is the time for all concession hall players to take the kids out of their arms and the drinks off their menus.

Professional wrestler says the average moving picture portrays many braves that he is thinking of applying for the leading role.

Local boxer who will win 20 games next season. Three more like that the team will climb out of last place.

Now is the time for all concession hall players to take the kids out of their arms and the drinks off their menus.

Professional wrestler says the average moving picture portrays many braves that he is thinking of applying for the leading role.

Local boxer who will win 20 games next season. Three more like that the team will climb out of last place.

Now is the time for all concession hall players to take the kids out of their arms and the drinks off their menus.

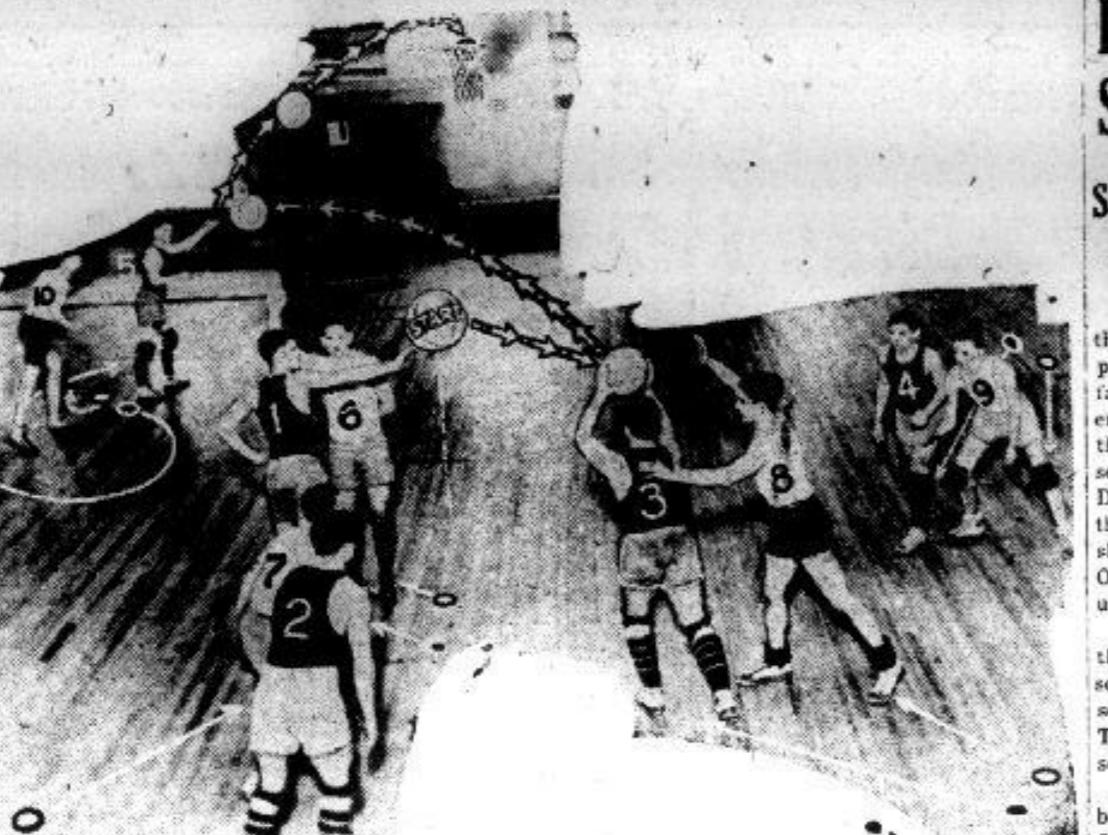

Professional wrestler says the average moving picture portrays many braves that he is thinking of applying for the leading role.

Local boxer who will win 20 games next season. Three more like that the team will climb out of last place.

Now is the time for all concession hall players to take the kids out of their arms and the drinks off their menus.

Professional wrestler says the average moving picture portrays many braves that he is thinking of applying for the leading role.

Local boxer who will win 20 games next season. Three more like that the team will climb out of last place.

Boxing Needs Man Like Landis to Preserve Sport

New York, Jan. 28.—"Boxing at this time is in a bad way," said Fred W. Landis at the helm. "With a Landis at the helm, it would be immune from interference."

The speaker was Senator James J. Walker, author of the boxing bill which was introduced in the Senate Saturday evening by the "Rec" boys.

The walkover was the twenty win of the season for the locals who have been setting a fast pace this year.

"Snooks" Angel was the outstanding star of the locals in the scoring line, being credited with nine field goals from the free throw line.

The visitors started a fast pace at the start and managed to hold the lead at half time, 15 to 14. Ellert R. F., Roy Tessier, the work of Tessier, left guard for the Mohawks was the key to the successful showing the Holyoke team put up. His dribbling and flashy work shone throughout the contest.

Those present did not feel they could appreciate the Senator's words—an appeal for a nationalized boxing. Baseball has its Landis, the motion pictures their Will Hays and the theater its Augustus Thomas. The Senator was asking for a supreme head of boxing.

Sounds Call to Duty.

He did not outline a play when this fortuitous state of affairs might be brought about. The Senator was the chief reason for the down fall of the Mohawks. He, although not figuring heavily in the scoring, played a whale of a game and was indirectly responsible for several of the baskets scored by his team mates.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of the game in their hands.

As Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

In the events behind the scenes, a commission of undoubted expertise, such as Judge Landis, he endures the criticism. If boring had such a man at his head, he believes that sport could be saved from itself.

The Senator, it is admitted, holds the destiny of boxing in his hands, as far as New York is concerned.

Face to face with the critics, he wants to turn on lights—second team also defeated.

Manchester Daily News

JOSEPH W. FLOOD, Publisher
56-58 Cottage Street, Near Oak,
South Manchester, Conn.
Entered as Second Class Mail
Matter at the South Manchester
Post Office
Subscription Rates:
One Year ..... $6.00
Six Months ..... $3.00
Three Months ..... $1.50
One Week ..... 12¢
Single Copies ..... Two Cents Each
Including Delivery Within Cities
Limits of the South Manchester and the New Haven Post Offices.
Business Office 1201—22
Editorial Room 1200

MONDAY, JAN. 28, 1924

JERSEY'S LOCAL OPTION

Our readers have come to us in time of trouble from the Jersey City boy has been having with Sunday Blue Laws. With the lid clamped down tight on Sundays, it is safe to say that a majority of Jersey City people have been forced to go to work on Saturday evenings.

The favorite gladiators who enjoy the fight are the politicians. They have become red in the face trying to devise some plan whereby they could have a little innocent pleasure or harmless diversion. Conditions have been so bad in Jersey City that the Jersey Law that the city, if we can judge from what we hear, has been invited into two hostile camps. On the one side is the Lord's Day Alliance, while on the other side is the Anti-Saloon League.

The Jersey organization is composed of liberal minded citizens who have enough respect for the law not to wish to see all law brought into contempt. Taking the Jersey Law as it stands, it is apparent that the Lord's Day Alliance has been doing its best with more and more insistence. If it has been persistent, it has not been consistent. In other words, based upon reports emanating from Jersey City, making fish of many of the men who are in trouble in Jersey City, not only for the Lord's Day League, but for a large percentage of good people. Mass meetings have been held in Jersey City and the Sunday League is an earnest advocate of greater freedom. Undoubtedly this organization represents public sentiment in Jersey City, but it has had its troubles. It has had to contend with intolerance and bigotry. Considerable effort has been made in Jersey City until the Sunday Blue Laws are lifted from the state book. As The News suggested sometime ago, there laws ought to be repealed. They will be repealed and they will continue to be defeated. A liberalization of the Sunday laws is what Jersey City needs, and the sooner it gets it the better. It will create an atmosphere that will be more helpful, that brings a larger measure of respect for all law.

Readers of The News, who have become familiar with Jersey City conditions under the existing Sunday Blue Laws, will be interested to know that there is now a bill before the New Jersey Legislature which was introduced by Miss Mae Carter, a member of the Assembly from Jersey City, seeks to put Sunday observance on a local option basis. This is a generally good basis, though this particular suggestion may not be the best. If there is anything, just about now ought to be the psychological urge to put such a bill across in Jersey City, that had made the Sunday Blue Laws so terrible. Some of the New Jersey community gets approximately the measure of Sunday enforcement and may try to do something to make it greater or less degree.

It isn't always safe to assume that the opposition will be no less vigorous. The unfortunate feature is that the opposition, to the World's end, "will not consider the bill, what it really is." Continuing its defense of this bill, which certainly ought to pass, the World says:

"The bill repeals the New Jersey Blue Laws, which state that made in each city the right to make strict Sunday laws of its own. In this case it would mean that the bill, which didn't already exist. Some of New Jersey's Sunday prohibitions are to be removed, but the rest are to be regarded everywhere except as a law for occasional occasions. Elsewhere the laws are partially observed, as, for example, where majority opinion is opposed to Sunday observance. In cases of the cities all the Blue Laws are suspended, while in others they are strengthened. Some of New Jersey's community gets approximately the measure of Sunday enforcement and may try to do something to make it greater or less degree.

It isn't better to do lawfully what

DAILY NEWS LETTER*MUST KNOW GOD IN OURSELVES

(Continued From Page One)

God could never be satisfied with partial love. God would have the whole man. Religion is to be the other purpose absorbing all other purposes in its greater interest.

"This inclusiveness is three-fold in its meaning embracing the trinity of powers over all, according to Dr. J. W. Evans. In fact, the doctor says that observation made at Greenwich show that New York is the most religious city in America.

"An error—it does not mean anything. It was made and then corrected immediately."

"Doesn't the entry in the newspaper account affect the salary negotiations?"

"It does not—no cash was involved. It is all a simple bookkeeping entry."

"It is dangerous any New England state has a better equipped or more able chief executive than Gov. Channing H. Cox of the neighboring Massachusetts. Gov. Cox, who is to retire from public life at the end of his term, is a man of great intelligence and his influence has steadily gone up on every subject. When it is engaging the attention of the legislature, he is in the public eye.

"The man is in emotion. The heart dominated personality. Feeling has a place and a very place in human experience. It is truly said of God that He is love. Never He is thought to be love. Love and God are one. We love God with our heart. This is love in intelligence. Mind and heart are needed in the perception of character. We love God. God then we find out why we love Him. Religion can never be ignored. The movement to the fact that the heart is slowing down in its movement about the cellar door.

The favorite gladiators who enjoy the fight are the politicians. They have become red in the face trying to devise some plan whereby they could have a little innocent pleasure or harmless diversion. Conditions have been so bad in Jersey City that the Jersey Law that the city, if we can judge from what we hear, has been invited into two hostile camps. On the one side is the Lord's Day Alliance, while on the other side is the Anti-Saloon League.

The Jersey organization is composed of liberal minded citizens who have enough respect for the law not to wish to see all law brought into contempt. Taking the Jersey Law as it stands, it is apparent that the Lord's Day Alliance has been doing its best with more and more insistence. If it has been persistent, it has not been consistent. In other words, based upon reports emanating from Jersey City, making fish of many of the men who are in trouble in Jersey City, not only for the Lord's Day League, but for a large percentage of good people. Mass meetings have been held in Jersey City and the Sunday League is an earnest advocate of greater freedom. Undoubtedly this organization represents public sentiment in Jersey City, but it has had its troubles. It has had to contend with intolerance and bigotry. Considerable effort has been made in Jersey City until the Sunday Blue Laws are lifted from the state book. As The News suggested sometime ago, there laws ought to be repealed. They will be repealed and they will continue to be defeated. A liberalization of the Sunday laws is what Jersey City needs, and the sooner it gets it the better. It will create an atmosphere that will be more helpful, that brings a larger measure of respect for all law.

It isn't always safe to assume that the opposition will be no less vigorous. The unfortunate feature is that the opposition, to the World's end, "will not consider the bill, what it really is." Continuing its defense of this bill, which certainly ought to pass, the World says:

"The bill repeals the New Jersey Blue Laws, which state that made in each city the right to make strict Sunday laws of its own. In this case it would mean that the bill, which didn't already exist. Some of New Jersey's Sunday prohibitions are to be removed, but the rest are to be regarded everywhere except as a law for occasional occasions. Elsewhere the laws are partially observed, as, for example, where majority opinion is opposed to Sunday observance. In cases of the cities all the Blue Laws are suspended, while in others they are strengthened. Some of New Jersey's community gets approximately the measure of Sunday enforcement and may try to do something to make it greater or less degree.

It isn't better to do lawfully what each community prefers to do than for the community to do as it sees fit in defiance of the law? A local option Sunday law, such as New Jersey is now seeking is sensible and sound. It's logical reasoning, and it's sounder far, in my opinion. In this manner each community gets what it wants and we get respect for all law, which after all, is a fundamental that must not be overlooked. If we do jersey in wide, it will probably pass up its Sunday Blue Laws and the local option law.

GOV. COX URGES PRUNING KNIFE

It is dangerous any New England state has a better equipped or more able chief executive than Gov. Channing H. Cox of the neighboring Massachusetts. Gov. Cox, who is to retire from public life at the end of his term, is a man of great intelligence and his influence has steadily gone up on every subject. When it is engaging the attention of the legislature, he is in the public eye.

"The man is in emotion. The heart dominated personality. Feeling has a place and a very place in human experience. It is truly said of God that He is love. Never He is thought to be love. Love and God are one. We love God with our heart. This is love in intelligence. Mind and heart are needed in the perception of character. We love God. God then we find out why we love Him. Religion can never be ignored. The movement to the fact that the heart is slowing down in its movement about the cellar door.

The favorite gladiators who enjoy the fight are the politicians. They have become red in the face trying to devise some plan whereby they could have a little innocent pleasure or harmless diversion. Conditions have been so bad in Jersey City that the Jersey Law that the city, if we can judge from what we hear, has been invited into two hostile camps. On the one side is the Lord's Day Alliance, while on the other side is the Anti-Saloon League.

The Jersey organization is composed of liberal minded citizens who have enough respect for the law not to wish to see all law brought into contempt. Taking the Jersey Law as it stands, it is apparent that the Lord's Day Alliance has been doing its best with more and more insistence. If it has been persistent, it has not been consistent. In other words, based upon reports emanating from Jersey City, making fish of many of the men who are in trouble in Jersey City, not only for the Lord's Day League, but for a large percentage of good people. Mass meetings have been held in Jersey City and the Sunday League is an earnest advocate of greater freedom. Undoubtedly this organization represents public sentiment in Jersey City, but it has had its troubles. It has had to contend with intolerance and bigotry. Considerable effort has been made in Jersey City until the Sunday Blue Laws are lifted from the state book. As The News suggested sometime ago, there laws ought to be repealed. They will be repealed and they will continue to be defeated. A liberalization of the Sunday laws is what Jersey City needs, and the sooner it gets it the better. It will create an atmosphere that will be more helpful, that brings a larger measure of respect for all law.

It isn't always safe to assume that the opposition will be no less vigorous. The unfortunate feature is that the opposition, to the World's end, "will not consider the bill, what it really is." Continuing its defense of this bill, which certainly ought to pass, the World says:

"The bill repeals the New Jersey Blue Laws, which state that made in each city the right to make strict Sunday laws of its own. In this case it would mean that the bill, which didn't already exist. Some of New Jersey's Sunday prohibitions are to be removed, but the rest are to be regarded everywhere except as a law for occasional occasions. Elsewhere the laws are partially observed, as, for example, where majority opinion is opposed to Sunday observance. In cases of the cities all the Blue Laws are suspended, while in others they are strengthened. Some of New Jersey's community gets approximately the measure of Sunday enforcement and may try to do something to make it greater or less degree.

It isn't better to do lawfully what each community prefers to do than for the community to do as it sees fit in defiance of the law? A local option Sunday law, such as New Jersey is now seeking is sensible and sound. It's logical reasoning, and it's sounder far, in my opinion. In this manner each community gets what it wants and we get respect for all law, which after all, is a fundamental that must not be overlooked. If we do jersey in wide, it will probably pass up its Sunday Blue Laws and the local option law.

GOV. COX URGES PRUNING KNIFE

It is dangerous any New England state has a better equipped or more able chief executive than Gov. Channing H. Cox of the neighboring Massachusetts. Gov. Cox, who is to retire from public life at the end of his term, is a man of great intelligence and his influence has steadily gone up on every subject. When it is engaging the attention of the legislature, he is in the public eye.

"The man is in emotion. The heart dominated personality. Feeling has a place and a very place in human experience. It is truly said of God that He is love. Never He is thought to be love. Love and God are one. We love God with our heart. This is love in intelligence. Mind and heart are needed in the perception of character. We love God. God then we find out why we love Him. Religion can never be ignored. The movement to the fact that the heart is slowing down in its movement about the cellar door.

The favorite gladiators who enjoy the fight are the politicians. They have become red in the face trying to devise some plan whereby they could have a little innocent pleasure or harmless diversion. Conditions have been so bad in Jersey City that the Jersey Law that the city, if we can judge from what we hear, has been invited into two hostile camps. On the one side is the Lord's Day Alliance, while on the other side is the Anti-Saloon League.

The Jersey organization is composed of liberal minded citizens who have enough respect for the law not to wish to see all law brought into contempt. Taking the Jersey Law as it stands, it is apparent that the Lord's Day Alliance has been doing its best with more and more insistence. If it has been persistent, it has not been consistent. In other words, based upon reports emanating from Jersey City, making fish of many of the men who are in trouble in Jersey City, not only for the Lord's Day League, but for a large percentage of good people. Mass meetings have been held in Jersey City and the Sunday League is an earnest advocate of greater freedom. Undoubtedly this organization represents public sentiment in Jersey City, but it has had its troubles. It has had to contend with intolerance and bigotry. Considerable effort has been made in Jersey City until the Sunday Blue Laws are lifted from the state book. As The News suggested sometime ago, there laws ought to be repealed. They will be repealed and they will continue to be defeated. A liberalization of the Sunday laws is what Jersey City needs, and the sooner it gets it the better. It will create an atmosphere that will be more helpful, that brings a larger measure of respect for all law.

It isn't always safe to assume that the opposition will be no less vigorous. The unfortunate feature is that the opposition, to the World's end, "will not consider the bill, what it really is." Continuing its defense of this bill, which certainly ought to pass, the World says:

"The bill repeals the New Jersey Blue Laws, which state that made in each city the right to make strict Sunday laws of its own. In this case it would mean that the bill, which didn't already exist. Some of New Jersey's Sunday prohibitions are to be removed, but the rest are to be regarded everywhere except as a law for occasional occasions. Elsewhere the laws are partially observed, as, for example, where majority opinion is opposed to Sunday observance. In cases of the cities all the Blue Laws are suspended, while in others they are strengthened. Some of New Jersey's community gets approximately the measure of Sunday enforcement and may try to do something to make it greater or less degree.

It isn't better to do lawfully what each community prefers to do than for the community to do as it sees fit in defiance of the law? A local option Sunday law, such as New Jersey is now seeking is sensible and sound. It's logical reasoning, and it's sounder far, in my opinion. In this manner each community gets what it wants and we get respect for all law, which after all, is a fundamental that must not be overlooked. If we do jersey in wide, it will probably pass up its Sunday Blue Laws and the local option law.

GOV. COX URGES PRUNING KNIFE

It is dangerous any New England state has a better equipped or more able chief executive than Gov. Channing H. Cox of the neighboring Massachusetts. Gov. Cox, who is to retire from public life at the end of his term, is a man of great intelligence and his influence has steadily gone up on every subject. When it is engaging the attention of the legislature, he is in the public eye.

"The man is in emotion. The heart dominated personality. Feeling has a place and a very place in human experience. It is truly said of God that He is love. Never He is thought to be love. Love and God are one. We love God with our heart. This is love in intelligence. Mind and heart are needed in the perception of character. We love God. God then we find out why we love Him. Religion can never be ignored. The movement to the fact that the heart is slowing down in its movement about the cellar door.

The favorite gladiators who enjoy the fight are the politicians. They have become red in the face trying to devise some plan whereby they could have a little innocent pleasure or harmless diversion. Conditions have been so bad in Jersey City that the Jersey Law that the city, if we can judge from what we hear, has been invited into two hostile camps. On the one side is the Lord's Day Alliance, while on the other side is the Anti-Saloon League.

The Jersey organization is composed of liberal minded citizens who have enough respect for the law not to wish to see all law brought into contempt. Taking the Jersey Law as it stands, it is apparent that the Lord's Day Alliance has been doing its best with more and more insistence. If it has been persistent, it has not been consistent. In other words, based upon reports emanating from Jersey City, making fish of many of the men who are in trouble in Jersey City, not only for the Lord's Day League, but for a large percentage of good people. Mass meetings have been held in Jersey City and the Sunday League is an earnest advocate of greater freedom. Undoubtedly this organization represents public sentiment in Jersey City, but it has had its troubles. It has had to contend with intolerance and bigotry. Considerable effort has been made in Jersey City until the Sunday Blue Laws are lifted from the state book. As The News suggested sometime ago, there laws ought to be repealed. They will be repealed and they will continue to be defeated. A liberalization of the Sunday laws is what Jersey City needs, and the sooner it gets it the better. It will create an atmosphere that will be more helpful, that brings a larger measure of respect for all law.

It isn't always safe to assume that the opposition will be no less vigorous. The unfortunate feature is that the opposition, to the World's end, "will not consider the bill, what it really is." Continuing its defense of this bill, which certainly ought to pass, the World says:

"The bill repeals the New Jersey Blue Laws, which state that made in each city the right to make strict Sunday laws of its own. In this case it would mean that the bill, which didn't already exist. Some of New Jersey's Sunday prohibitions are to be removed, but the rest are to be regarded everywhere except as a law for occasional occasions. Elsewhere the laws are partially observed, as, for example, where majority opinion is opposed to Sunday observance. In cases of the cities all the Blue Laws are suspended, while in others they are strengthened. Some of New Jersey's community gets approximately the measure of Sunday enforcement and may try to do something to make it greater or less degree.

It isn't better to do lawfully what each community prefers to do than for the community to do as it sees fit in defiance of the law? A local option Sunday law, such as New Jersey is now seeking is sensible and sound. It's logical reasoning, and it's sounder far, in my opinion. In this manner each community gets what it wants and we get respect for all law, which after all, is a fundamental that must not be overlooked. If we do jersey in wide, it will probably pass up its Sunday Blue Laws and the local option law.

GOV. COX URGES PRUNING KNIFE

It is dangerous any New England state has a better equipped or more able chief executive than Gov. Channing H. Cox of the neighboring Massachusetts. Gov. Cox, who is to retire from public life at the end of his term, is a man of great intelligence and his influence has steadily gone up on every subject. When it is engaging the attention of the legislature, he is in the public eye.

"The man is in emotion. The heart dominated personality. Feeling has a place and a very place in human experience. It is truly said of God that He is love. Never He is thought to be love. Love and God are one. We love God with our heart. This is love in intelligence. Mind and heart are needed in the perception of character. We love God. God then we find out why we love Him. Religion can never be ignored. The movement to the fact that the heart is slowing down in its movement about the cellar door.

The favorite gladiators who enjoy the fight are the politicians. They have become red in the face trying to devise some plan whereby they could have a little innocent pleasure or harmless diversion. Conditions have been so bad in Jersey City that the Jersey Law that the city, if we can judge from what we hear, has been invited into two hostile camps. On the one side is the Lord's Day Alliance, while on the other side is the Anti-Saloon League.

The Jersey organization is composed of liberal minded citizens who have enough respect for the law not to wish to see all law brought into contempt. Taking the Jersey Law as it stands, it is apparent that the Lord's Day Alliance has been doing its best with more and more insistence. If it has been persistent, it has not been consistent. In other words, based upon reports emanating from Jersey City, making fish of many of the men who are in trouble in Jersey City, not only for the Lord's Day League, but for a large percentage of good people. Mass meetings have been held in Jersey City and the Sunday League is an earnest advocate of greater freedom. Undoubtedly this organization represents public sentiment in Jersey City, but it has had its troubles. It has had to contend with intolerance and bigotry. Considerable effort has been made in Jersey City until the Sunday Blue Laws are lifted from the state book. As The News suggested sometime ago, there laws ought to be repealed. They will be repealed and they will continue to be defeated. A liberalization of the Sunday laws is what Jersey City needs, and the sooner it gets it the better. It will create an atmosphere that will be more helpful, that brings a larger measure of respect for all law.

It isn't always safe to assume that the opposition will be no less vigorous. The unfortunate feature is that the opposition, to the World's end, "will not consider the bill, what it really is." Continuing its defense of this bill, which certainly ought to pass, the World says:

"The bill repeals the New Jersey Blue Laws, which state that made in each city the right to make strict Sunday laws of its own. In this case it would mean that the bill, which didn't already exist. Some of New Jersey's Sunday prohibitions are to be removed, but the rest are to be regarded everywhere except as a law for occasional occasions. Elsewhere the laws are partially observed, as, for example, where majority opinion is opposed to Sunday observance. In cases of the cities all the Blue Laws are suspended, while in others they are strengthened. Some of New Jersey's community gets approximately the measure of Sunday enforcement and may try to do something to make it greater or less degree.

It isn't better to do lawfully what each community prefers to do than for the community to do as it sees fit in defiance of the law? A local option Sunday law, such as New Jersey is now seeking is sensible and sound. It's logical reasoning, and it's sounder far, in my opinion. In this manner each community gets what it wants and we get respect for all law, which after all, is a fundamental that must not be overlooked. If we do jersey in wide, it will probably pass up its Sunday Blue Laws and the local option law.

Motion of Public Entertainer—The motion of the Indicates will be at the top of "News Notes" at $1.00 per inch each insertion.

NEWSY NOTES

The King's Daughters afternoon group will meet tomorrow afternoon with the leader. It is desired that all members attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kingsbury of New York City spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Kingsbury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kingsbury of Sun street.

The Men's Bowling League of the Second Congregational church will bowl at Conroy's alleys this evening at eight o'clock.

The masquerade dance given by the Zippers Club Saturday evening at the Sub Alpine Club rooms was very well attended in spite of the zero weather.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of Chestnut street spent the week-end with relatives in Rhode Island.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid to the A. O. H. will be held in Cheney Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

The men's club will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, 65 East Center street, Rev. J. S. Neil officiating. Interment will be made at arms, Miss Mary Louise Garrison; sentinel, Miss Lillian McCarthy. The next meeting will be held on the second Friday of February.

OBITUARY

LADIES OF COLUMBUS
ELECTED OFFICERSJAPS TO SERIOUSLY
PROTEST IMMIGRATION
RESTRICTIONS OF U. S.CONSIDER PLANS FOR
GERMAN GOLD BANKDRAMATIC SETTING IS LAIDLOCAL MAN ROBBED AND THROWN IN STREET

(Continued From Page One)

WEST SIDE REC NOTES

DONT FORGET THE CHICKEN DINNER

DON'T FORGET THE CHICKEN DINNER

TOMORROW AT 7 O'CLOCK

WHILE IT'S A WHIST AND HOWLING

AFTER THE DINNER

THOSE WHO HAVE

NOT ALREADY MADE RESERVATIONS

INTEND TO, SHOULD DO SO TONIGHT.

Yesterday afternoon at the "Kathy" Hall on Bissell street, the Girls' Catholic Club of Columbus held their annual election of officers. There were about 200 present including delegations from Norwich, Baltic, Hartland, and Rockville. The state president, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, and Mrs. Charles McPherson, president and vice-president respectively, presided over the occasion; the trimming being gold and white. Beautiful refreshments were served in the vestry, following the election.

The Rev. W. P. Ralby delivered the address of welcome to the visitors. Between the courses all joined in singing, led by Miss Helen Bowring. The elected were: President, Miss McPherson; Vice-President, Mrs. Jenny Sherian; Vice-President, Mrs. Agnes Messier; Recording Secretary, Miss Aliceon Holden; Financial Secretary, Miss Mary Barrett; Treasurer, Miss Anna Johnson, all of this town; also one brother, Everett Johnson of Sarasota, Florida.

Mrs. Ferris was born in South Manchester, and attended the Ninth District High School there. She was a member of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, where she was a Sunday school teacher, a member of the choir and also a member of the Glee Club and the Foreign Society.

For the first and second committees will depart for Berlin within 24 hours. The total party numbers 54, including 13 American.

Members of the first committee is investigating the conditions of the gold and currency situation, the second committee headed by Reginald McKenna, of London, will attempt to ascertain how much German wealth is held abroad and how it can be applied to the reparations account.

A source close to the cabinet claims that feeling is not high in Germany concerning the reparations. The government is now centering its domestic policy on the issue of reparation, the trimming being gold and white. Bountiful refreshments were served in the vestry, following the election.

Miss Mary was well-known and liked in this town, while all who knew her were her friends. Her death comes as a severe shock, as she seemed so much better and more active than ever. The next meeting will be held on the second Friday of February.

CELEBRATION HELD
BY M. P. JAILEDHOUSE OF COMMONS CONTAINS SEVENTEEN MEMBERS WHO HAVE "DONE TIME"CANCER INCREASING,
AVERS SPECIALISTGROWS WITH CIVILIZATION;
HE SAYS; VICTORY NEVER
THAT FORTY YEARS AGOLONDON: UPPER STRATA AWED
AT PRESENT OF WORLD'S SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

HAROLD JANIN JOHNSON

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Seventeen mem## bers here of the House of Commons who have served jail sentences celebrat## ed recently by giving an elaborate

dinner in the House of Commons.

Mr. Johnson was 51 years of age

when he was a member of Walling-

ford Lodge No. 2 of Hartford, Con## necticut, and 28, one of 10,000 mem## bers of the British Medical ## Association.

The majority of the members of ## the House of Commons Prison

Club are Labor members, who have ## served sentences for religious ## political offenses.

The meetings for which the ## members have served time were ## conscientious objection, suffrage

activities, anti-lynching, cam## paigns, and the like.

The majority of the members of ## the House of Commons who have ## served jail sentences are Labor

members.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A number of the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of this place at-tended the installation held yesterday afternoon in Hartford by the Hartford organization.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

A card received this morning from Mrs. Arthur Miller, former of this place, now residing at Daytona, Florida, advised him that Mr. Gilbert Willis of East Center Street, had dinner at their home Thursday evening and that Mr. Miller and Mr. Willis went fishing the next day.

She says that it certainly seems good to see Mr. Willis again.

LADIES OF COLUMBUS
ELECTED OFFICERSJAPS TO SERIOUSLY
PROTEST IMMIGRATION
RESTRICTIONS OF U. S.CONSIDER PLANS FOR
GERMAN GOLD BANKDRAMATIC SETTING IS LAID

(Continued From Page One)

PARIS, Jan. 28.—Plans for the proposed German gold bank at Berlin to stem the tide of emigration are being considered today by a committee of experts headed by General Charles Gates Dawes, of Chicago. The committee expect to work readying the legislation at Washington which would exclude all Japanese from the United States as immigrants.

BOSTON, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

DETROIT, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

BIRMINGHAM, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

DETROIT, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

ATLANTA, Jan. 28.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has voted to approve the bill introduced by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, of Massachusetts, which would prohibit the entry of Japanese into the United States.

SONS OF ITALY DANCE