Topic: In His Sermon.
Topic: White for Unity, red for Justice, blue for justice—the flag of our country, to be cherished by all our hearts, to be upheld by all our hands.
It was the women of California who instituted the March of Alliances, even before the referendum vote on the Prohibition Amendment. All honor is due to them for their courage and their devotion to the cause of the temperance cause. Full program printed elsewhere in this paper.
Wednesday, Feb. 13, 1934, Church Training Night.
When people say: "Prohibition violates the rights of personal liberty" answer this:
"The progress of civilization has been a long curbing of personal liberty. Fancy a world given over to personal liberty? Imagine Fifth avenue with no traffic laws! The truth is, I may enjoy personal liberty up to the point where it interferes with the safety and the rights of others. There is no personal liberty end."
Hon. J. Weston Cullen, former Attorney General of Massachusetts, said: "It is a great mistake to regard Prohibition enforcement as an isolated problem. It is one of the aspects of the much greater struggle for the right of personal liberty."
The W. C. T. U. will meet in the South Methodist church, Tuesday, Feb. 12, at 8:30 p. m. All members are urged to attend.
