BE HELD THIS EVENING POT

A large attendance is expected this evening at the February meeting of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce to be held in Tinker hall. A supper served at 6:30 will precede the business session. The chief address of the evening will be given by Flaval Shurtleff, of New York, secretary of the National Conference on City Planning. Suburban memberships, the new ederal building and the committee report on town planning will be among the topics taken up for discussion by the Chamber. The committee on the Federal building has an interesting report to make inasmuch as data has been received regarding the possibility of the appropriation asked for by Congressman E. Hart Fenn eing passed at this session of Congress.

He won the confidence of his neighbors very early for he was made a major in the state army at the age of 19 and the commander of the northern army of the state of Virginia at 21 where he had to defend a frontier of 350 miles with 700 men. In life and in death he was the same courageous man. His self sacrifice is also prominent. Some one asked what made the difference between Washington and men like Napoleon and Alexander? The answer was that these men rose to greatness by pulling other men down. Washington rose to fame by lifting other men up. Always humble, he distrusted himself. He gave all he had to make the ecuntry great. He was religious. He was almost puritan in his conduct and he carried that strict puritanism into the army. He not only believed in God but made that belief public in his inaugurals. He
