WONT SKIN U. S. GUESTS SAY PARIS HOTEL MEN

Paris, June 17.—As host for the Olympic athletes, Paris hotel men are ready to receive their guests, and also have ample accommodation for the thousands of spectators to be expected to arrive in the city during the period of the games. The problem of providing for the needs of the thousands of spectators is being solved, according to officials, and there need be no apprehension that comfortable rooms will be unavailable.

The agents of Germany have spread the reports that Paris hotels are so full that tourists are obliged to sleep in the parks and that, to meet this crisis, the Municipal Council has asked the War Ministry to construct wooden barracks in the streets.

These reports are, of course, absurd, and the mere suggestion that barracks are proposed was ridiculed by C. Michard, president of the hotel syndicate. Regarding the report that tourists are obliged to sleep in the parks, he said that nothing could be more false.

Arguments Galore In Sensational Twilight Game

WRIGHT'S HOME RUN SMASH WITH TWO ON BASES KNOTS SCORE FOR ST. MARY'S AFTER SHAMROCKS APPEAR CERTAIN WINNERS IN EXTRA INNING

Game Ends in 5-5 Tie—Shamrocks Finish Game Under Protest Following Squabble in Sixth Inning—Both Teams Score Four Runs in Extra Frame—Game is Replete With Thrills—Russell's Decisions Are Questioned.

(By the Sports Editor)

Emphasizing the time worn saying that "A game is never over till the last man is out," Gill Wright, third baseman for St. Mary's saved his team from what looked like sure defeat in their game with the Shamrocks at the West Side Playgrounds last evening when he clouted a home run with two outs and two on base—a drive which served to tie the score at five all and the game was called on account of darkness. Wright's drive came like a thunderbolt in a clear sky as the Shamrocks seemed sure winners as a ninth man in for their last bats in the eighth inning. Game, which was one of the most exciting games seen in a year was marred by considerable wrangling over the questionable decision rendered by Umpire Russell, who was finished under protest by the Shamrocks.

McLaughlin walked and then Ray Bowers followed with his second double of the game scoring both runs. Keller fanned but the North End fans were thrown into a frenzy of excitement when Wallington landed on Farrell's delivery for a clean single to right away. Wallitt scored second on a passed ball and scores when Look "kissed the pot" a boomer with another single to center. This ended the scoring for the Shamrocks who were then leading 5 to 1.

Many of the fans started to leave the field thinking that it was "all over but the shouting" but they didn't get far before the run and broke out again. Farrell, first baseman for the Saints, gave a life when Keller finished the grounder. It was Keller's fourth error of the game. The other questionable decision that was made by Russell came at this point of the game. Keller, the next batter grounded to Keller, who again threw, while in three for his first error. McLaughlin called it quits for the night after Peterson had fled out to Long ending the inning.
