ELEVATOR AND OFFICE.

Opp. Depot, Manchester, Conn.

With our side track direct to Elevator, we claim special facilities for unloading and shipping our goods equaled by no concern between Hartford and Willimantic. Our Mill is on Oakland Street, and we call attention to the quality of the Meal and Feed we are now making, worth at least ten cents a hundred more than Hartford meal. Our branch on Main Street, South Manchester, is in charge of Mr. A. Rogers, and orders left there will receive prompt attention.

PREFACE.

It is with pleasure that we present to our patrons and the public generally, the first issue of our MANCHESTER DIRECTORY. The work has been an arduous one, but the kindly interest manifested towards us, and the assistance necessary to the publication of such a volume has been so freely and liberally bestowed that our labors have been correspondingly lightened. That a work of this nature should be entirely free from errors cannot be expected. Our aim has been to approach as near perfection as possible, and to that end no labor or expense has been spared, and we trust our efforts will be appreciated. With a constantly increasing faith in the bright future of this, one of the most thriving towns in New England, we extend our hearty thanks to all who have in any way contributed toward the success of our work, and hope to be able to record a marked advancement in the prosperity of the town in succeeding issues, which we hope to make bi-annually, we remain

Respectfully yours,

WILBUR F. HANKS.

HAIGHT & DUDLEY

PRINTERS

POUGHKEEPSIE, NEW YORK

WE HAVE EXCELLENT FACILITIES FOR THE PRODUCTION OF THE FINER GRADES OF WORK, IN BLACK OR COLORS, QUICKLY AND AT REASONABLE PRICES. OUR REPUTATION FOR SUPERIOR PRINTING IS KNOWN ALL OVER THE WORLD, AND WE COULD FILL A BOOK WITH COMMENTS SIMILAR TO THOSE QUOTED BELOW.

No establishment in this country surpasses, and few equal its productions.—Inland Printer, Chicago.

No printing office in the land turns out better work.—Typographic Advertiser, Philadelphia.

Mr. Haight keeps up his reputation as the most versatile of American artistic typographers. His mastery of every detail of execution is simply wonderful; his strong individuality marks every specimen from his hand so distinctly as to scarcely need the evidence of the imprint to decide its paternity. The contrasts in style are widely distinct, ranging from classic neatness to the most elaborate decorative effects, but all the specimens, without exception, are strikingly attractive and tasteful, and bear the impress of the hand of a master craftsman.—Paper & Printing Trades Journal, London, England.

Mr. Haight's skill as an original designer of artistic color work is too well known to need comment: frequently we have said "this is his best: he won't beat it!" but the next specimen shows that his inventive faculty knows no rest.—Id.

We have heard Mr. Haight described as the "Boss" Printer of the United States. His work is certainly of the finest possible kind, and he must be an artist of no ordinary pretensions.—London Press News.

This printer's typography is not excelled by anything produced in the States, which is certainly saying a good deal.—Printer & Stationer, London, England.
