FOREWORD

Marking the 200th anniversary of the calendar as it is known in the English speaking world, we proudly pause to prepare, for our memories, this record of our friendships we have made, leadership we have experienced, and scholarship gained during the seconds, minutes, and hours of our association together at Manchester High School.

To The American Calendar

For the record of time past and time to come this yearbook is dedicated. Whether it is in the singing of springtime, the flowering of summer, the swift-passing of autumn, or the chilliness of winter, youth can anticipate the days, the months, the hours, and the years of joys and sorrows as recorded on the Scroll of Time.

SOMANHIS STAFF

Representatives of the staff attended the Annual Connecticut Scholastic Press Convention at Meriden. Somanhis Staff prepared a permanent record of the clubs, sports, and class activities at Manchester High School, under the editorship of Nona Grusha.

The statistics for the yearbook were compiled by the statistical staff consisting of one representative from each senior home room; photography work was planned and scheduled; and candid shots secured by the Editorial Staff, under the direction of Miss Ione Fellows.

Much time was also spent organizing the yearbook around "Time," the selected theme which was appropriately chosen this year.

The Typing Staff prepared the material compiled by the Editorial Staff, and helped to proofread the yearbook copy.

Miss Hope Henderson directed the Art Staff which prepared all the original art work based on the theme, arranged the candid, and designed all division pages and sketches.

The Manchester High School Publications staff secured the advertising and the subscriptions under the supervision of Mr. Edward Ryder.

HIGH SCHOOL WORLD

Sports, dramatics, classroom activities, assemblies, and interviews highlighted the issues of the High School World in their Thursday appearances in the Manchester Herald.

Regular newspaper procedures are followed under the supervision of Miss Helen Estes. Each member of the staff has a regular beat and occasional special assignments. This year Janet Bradley has been editor-in-chief and Barbara Bengston served as assistant editor.

The editorial board has devised a new layout for the page and new styles of headlines have been utilized to give variety and attract interest.

Interviews with new students and other interesting school personalities at the Friday morning meetings have enabled the staff to train itself in this very important part of journalism. Writing techniques for news stories, features, and editorials were reviewed at the Annual Connecticut Scholastic Press Convention at Meriden.

By accurately reporting the class and extra-curricular activities of Manchester High the World has done much to promote friendly relations between the citizens of Manchester and the high school students.

MANCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

The Manchester High School Publications Staff is a group of pupils divided into two sections. The first section is responsible for soliciting advertisements in Somanhis from local merchants. This takes a great deal of patience, time, and salesmanship ability. The second section, made up of representatives chosen by homeroom teachers, are responsible for securing both Somanhis and Quill subscriptions, for distributing the yearbook and the bi-annual school magazine, and for the handling of all finances involved.

This difficult and time consuming work is under the direction of Mr. Edward Ryder.

ART CLUB

The Art Club, directed by Miss Hope S. Henderson, is an organization for students interested in developing abilities in art work, toward art careers, or for enjoyment during leisure time. Meetings are held in the Art Studio twice a month for one or two hours.

Officers for 1951-1952 are Sally Shea, Elaine Duncan, Carolyn Janssen, Lorraine Contois, Richard Hazelton.

The club's activities this year have included studio drawing and painting, field trips, and guest speakers. Trips have included visits to art schools in the Hartford area, and to New York. Guest speakers have included Mrs. Saffari from Iran, Professor Charles Robertson from Pratt Institute in New York, and an artist instructor from the Hartford Art School.

Other activities have included the annual initiation picnic in September at Center Springs, reconditioning toys at Christmas for underprivileged children in town, and an annual picnic in June. Club members also participated in the Scholastic Art contest in February and the Young Manchester Paints Contest in April.

As usual the Somanhis Art Staff carried out the theme of the year-book using their imagination and creative ability in the art work throughout the book.

This staff is composed of nine members, winners in a tryout conducted in the fall.

ART SERVICE SQUAD

The Art Service Squad, also known as "the above 90 club," is under the direction of Miss Hope S. Henderson. The club, organized seven years ago, consisted of 16 members this year.

The main purpose of the A. S. S. is to carry out projects requested by other high school departments as well as occasionally doing outside work. Such as posters, lettering, and scenery painting.

Planning and working on decorations for the High School Prom held in November was one of the largest projects of the club.

In the spring the Art Service Squad, with the Art Club and Somanhis Art Staff, visited New York where they observed several points of interest.

The Art Service Squad also participated in the Scholastic Art Contest in February. Some members of the Squad again accepted an invitation to demonstrate during the Scholastic Exhibit at the Avery Museum in Hartford.

QUILL

Quill, Manchester High School's literary magazine, is published twice a year by the magazine's staff, under the direction of Miss Marion M. Casey. The Quill staff meets on Monday afternoon at two-thirty to discuss manuscripts and work on the editing of the magazine.

The manuscripts in Quill are submitted through the English classes or by individual students.

Each spring Quill sponsors a school-wide writing contest, offering five dollar prizes for upper and lower-class prose and poetry.

Quill has done a great deal to promote and encourage creative writing, and has inspired students who have writing ability. Any boy or girl who is interested may submit material to the staff for consideration.

Officers this year are: Mary Jo Brennan, Editor-in-Chief, and Anita Gagliardone, Secretary.

CURRENT AFFAIRS CLUB

Through the activities of the Current Affairs Club the members of the organization attained a clearer understanding of the news of the day. The club was organized in 1938 and reorganized in 1945.

Under its supervisor, Mr. Lewis H. Piper, the club enjoyed many discussions held during the meeting period every Thursday morning from 7:50 until 8:25. Materials used as references in preparation for the discussions were "New York Times" Sunday Edition, "Newsweek," and "Times."

An innovation in the club schedule was the presentation once each month of a speaker whose activities in public affairs are well known. Politics, crime, and foreign policy were a few subjects discussed at these meetings.

The highlight of the year's activities was the participation of eight members of the club in a mock session of the United Nations Assembly sponsored by the Junior Foreign Policy Association on April 22. Students also attended the monthly meetings of both the Senior and Junior Foreign Policy Associations.

In the spring the club made a trip to the United Nations building and scheduled a tour to the Connecticut General Assembly.

DEBATING CLUB

The Debating Club has had an active season this year. An interesting assembly debate was given on the subject "Scholarships for College Athletes."

Debates with other schools in Connecticut, Maine, and Massachusetts have made up part of the club's curriculum.

Plans were made to enter the State debating tournament at the University of Connecticut.

Aside from the many large debates, practice debates were given at the monthly meetings. These debates were designed to help the members become skilled in the art of public speaking.

SOCK AND BUSKIN

The forecast of a somewhat wide and varied schedule found Sock and Buskin, the dramatic group for Juniors and Seniors, once again ready to embark upon the year 1952 under the direction of Mrs. Helen Page Skinner.

The usual activities of the club were the presentation of a number of one-act plays directed by the National Thespian Society members from Sock and Buskin. Among some of the plays presented were, "Master Pierre Patelin," and the "Devil and Daniel Webster," along with a Variety Show given by the club's members and a lecture on Speech, by Miss Genevieve Schanell, Reading Consultant for the Manchester Schools.

A large group of members from the club traveled to New York to witness the presentation of the musical comedy, "Call Me Madam," starring Ethel Merman. Dinner at Toots Shors, a well-known theatrical restaurant, and a visit to Radio City made everyone agree that it marked a memorable and worth while occasion.

The comedy, "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," by Mark Twain, was very successfully presented before the public in February as their annual three-act play. "Antigone" by Jean Anouilh, took top honors for Sock and Buskin by being rated "Excellent" in the Regional, State, and New England Festivals. "Jeptha's Daughter" by Elma Ehrlich Levinzer was presented at New Britain in the Connecticut Drama Festival in March. The annual National Thespian Banquet was held in March.

The formal initiative dance very successfully concluded another year for Sock and Buskin. The officers for 1952 were: President, Richard Day; Vice-President, Patricia O'Hara; Secretary, Phyllis Mastropietro; and Treasurer, Richard Woodhouse.

PAIN AND POWDER

Paint and Powder, the underclass dramatic club, was composed of sixty freshman and sophomore members, and two faculty directors, Miss Anna McGuire and Miss Isabel Worth. Although the main purpose and interest of the club was dramatics, it was a social organization also.

In the fall the club concentrated on producing one-act plays for the entertainment and education of the members. The initiation party at the beginning of the season was a social function.

After mid-year the principal business was the public performance presented at the end of the spring term. The year closed with another social activity, an outdoor picnic.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, under the supervision of Mr. George Emmerling, was composed of thirty-six elected representatives from each homeroom. Its purpose is to promote better citizenship throughout the school and to further, in all ways possible, the interests of the students.

The council met twice a month, with President, Al Grossman, presiding. Each member in the council worked on a committee. These committees carried on drives, plans, social affairs, and school problems.

During the year, the Student Council carried on about seventeen sport dances and the junior prom. It held such drives as the Student Activity Association, March of Dimes, Christmas Seal Drives, and the Junior Red Cross Drive. In the spring the council promoted a drive for the two Indian Schools sponsored by Manchester High. The council also helped edit and distribute the Manchester High School handbook, and approved all letters and merit awards given out to the students.

LIBRARY PAGES

The Library Page Club, under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Gerard, had another busy year. To become a Library Page each member volunteered to work in the Library twice a week during a free period, performing the many duties necessary in an active library. The Pages learned how to file cards, shelve books, arrange attractive bulletin boards and on the whole become familiar with the Library routine and the material available. In addition, the Pages gained a wealth of experience in helping other students locate books and research material.

Tag Day highlights the work of the Library Pages. During Book Week in November, they canvassed each homeroom for contributions to the Book Fund. The winning room received the Tag Day Plaque and in recent years there has been a great deal of competition. This past year Room 25M—Miss Fellows' and Miss Burke's rooms, tied for first place.

Since all work and no play would make a dull Page, the Club had occasional parties. In March there was held the annual field trip to New Haven. At this time they were taken on a conducted tour of the Yale Sterling Memorial Library and afterwards attended the annual meeting of the Nutmeg 020 Association, a state-wide organization of young library assistants, at the New Haven State Teachers College.

This year the Pages had an additional project and sent a CARE Book Package to Italy.

The Freshman Y-Teen Club was organized for the first time this year. Due to the large freshman class the club had to be divided. Miss Beverly Southwick was the faculty adviser.

When Inter-Club Council meetings were held in Hartford at the Y.W.C.A., two representatives of our club, Norma Machia and Eleanor Seelert, attended.

Y-Teen meetings were held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month in 23 Main Building.

Many times the freshman and sophomore groups combined to carry on such activities as seeing movies, hearing speakers, and holding parties for special occasions.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The A Cappella Choir, under the leadership of Mr. G. Albert Pearson was composed of Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores.

The choir had a very busy schedule, starting off with a broadcast for WKNB at Christmas time. One of the well received Christmas concerts was given in the Assembly Hall for friends and relatives. The C.C.I.L. festival, in April, was as impressive to the members this year as it had been in the past and it was a thrill to those who had not attended previously.

A concert was given by the members of the choir at the Verplanck School for the fifth and sixth grades of Manchester.

The A Cappella Choir also participated in the Outdoor Festival in June.

Their successful season, this year, was climaxed by singing for the seniors at the graduation exercises in June.

ROUND TABLE

This year, as in previous years, the Round Table singers had a very busy choral season. Twenty-four students chosen by Mr. G. Albert Pearson composed the group.

During the month of December, the group sang for a number of organizations. Some of these organizations included the Women's Federation, Lutheran Missionary Society, and the Kiwanis Club. Another wonderful experience for this group was the opportunity to sing over a local radio station.

One of the outstanding programs presented at the High School Auditorium was the Annual High School Concert.

CONDUCTORS

The Conductors' Club, under the leadership of Mr. G. Albert Pearson, met Monday afternoons in the High School Auditorium.

After learning the fundamentals in the art of conducting, each member led the group in well-known folk songs. Mr. Pearson criticized the different techniques and demonstrated the difference between a good conductor and a poor conductor.

Several of the club members were fortunate in having a chance to conduct the orchestra and choir.

LES CERCLES FRANCAIS

Meetings of the French Clubs were held on an average of once a month. The meetings were directed as much as possible in French. The roll call was answered by naming famous French people or places or by giving one or two sentences in the language.

The one purpose of the Cercles Francais, which is under the direction of Miss Jeanne Low, was to increase the students' knowledge of France and of its people. Many films, slides and filmstrips were shown of the country and the culture of the people. Talks were given on the same topics.

Another purpose being the increased use of the language, students were given opportunities to do so through talks, skits, and songs.

This year, as in other years, clothes, toys, school supplies such as crayons, and books were sent to friends in France.

SPANISH CLUBS

In the early fall the Spanish Clubs participated in the Manchester Products Show by using their own tape recording of a Spanish song, a travel skit and a choral reading. A few members gave presentations in person.

Records were used during some of the meetings to improve pronunciation, to correlate dialogue work in class, and to promote an interest in Spanish music.

In the Spanish III Club, vocabulary ball games, themes on school activities, original Spanish menus, and letter writing helped to make the Spanish language more practicable.

Most of the meetings were devoted to film and slide showings of Mexico, Central and South America, Cuba, and Spain. The movies vividly portrayed Spanish life and culture in these countries and helped to create a better understanding of all the Spanish-speaking people.

The Manchester High School gridders, with an extremely successful season, won the 1951 C.C.I.L. championship. Amassing a fine 7 and 1 record, the "Indians" rolled over the bulk of their opponents.

The "Red and White" started off the season in grand style with a 25 to 0 trouncing of Hamden.

Then a 39 to 0 lacing of Bristol, made the local rooters sit up and take notice of a fine, well-organized, ball club.

Following were the overwhelming victories over Hall High of West Hartford, East Hartford, and Meriden High to the respective scores of 47 to 21, 41 to 18, 41 to 7.

The big game was next. The tussle with powerful, undefeated Middletown High, resulted in the "Indians" first setback. Middletown squeezed out a 24 to 20 victory in a thrilling, hard-fought battle.

The Briggs men, undaunted, recovered the winning stride and rolled over Rockville 21 to 0. The pads and helmet boys finished up a fine season with a sound licking of Windham, 28-6.

The high-scoring Manchester squad, in outscoring their opponents 254 to 76, set a new school scoring record as a team.

James Roach, speedy fullback, also set a new school individual scoring record.

Robert Johnson, quarterback, and James Minicucci, powerful tackle, with their great field generalship and play, led the team in unquestionable form through a season long to be remembered.

Next year's captains-elect are James Roach, the high scoring fullback, and Marshall Aitken, the "Indians'" steady, hard-working center.

CHEER LEADERS

The Cheerleading squad meet several times a week to practice. During the football and basketball season the squad led the school at rallies and at several sport dances for the purpose of teaching new cheers.

The squad attended the state soccer play off and several games at the soccer field at Mt. Nebo.

The Cheer Leaders were, also, invited to the banquet in honor of the football, soccer and cross country teams.

GIRLS LEADERS' CLUB

To promote qualities of leadership and sportsmanship is the primary purpose of the Girls Leaders' Club. This year's club, under the supervision of Miss Julia Case, Girls' Physical Education Instructor, was composed of twenty-five sophomore, junior, and senior girls.

An entrance test in rules of girls' sports was given in the spring to all those interested in becoming club members. Once a girl is a member she must maintain at least a "B" in gym and a "C" in academic subjects to remain in the club. For participating actively in the club's activities during the year, a girl is given fifty points toward athletic credits.

The club combined social activities as well, with their regular duties of managing gym classes, and of aiding the gym teachers. The Girls Leaders' Club sponsored a booth at the Manchester Products Show early in the fall. A Christmas party was held during the holiday season. A co-rec night with the Varsity "M" Club took place in the spring. Another spring activity was the annual cook-out. Many girls in the club received official G.L.C. pins and guards.

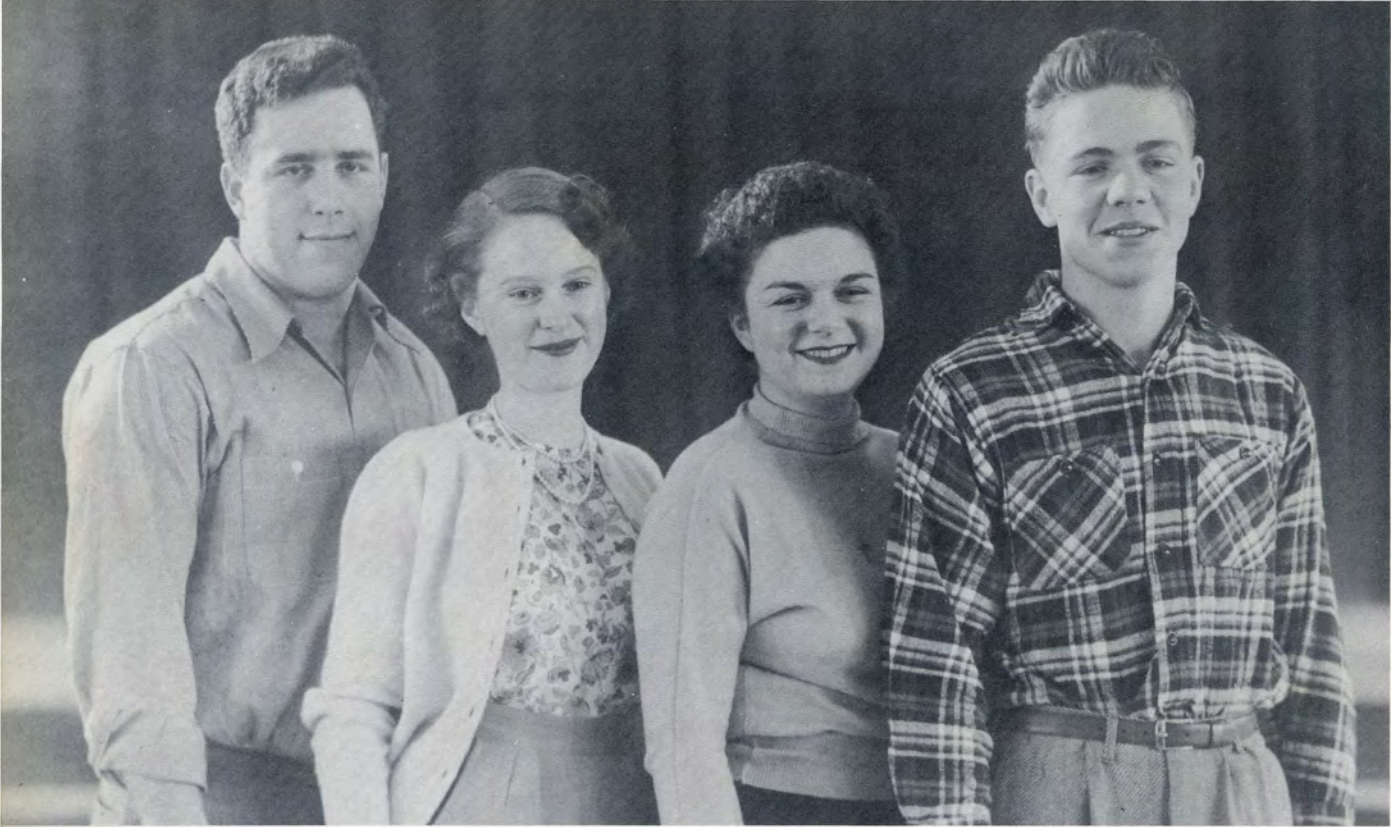

The girls also participated in several sports playdays at New Britain and the University of Connecticut. The annual picnic in June concluded another busy year for the leaders.

The 1951-'52 fleet-footed harriers turned in a perfect record, winning all eight of their dual meets. Coached by Mr. Wigren, the speedsters racked up 154 points to their opponents' 286.

"Milt" Cole, a fleet-footed four year man, led the Indians all season to a C.C.I.L. title. Ably assisted by Gorden Eckler, Rog Ritchie, and Adrian Schmidhauser, the team opened the season with a 26 to 29 win over Bristol. The other seven victories were over Hartford, 22 to 33; Norwich, 17 to 38; Hartford Bulkely, 15 to 40; Middletown, 15 to 40; Weaver, 19 to 36; East Hartford, 15 to 40; and Windham, 25 to 30.

RIFLE TEAM

Coach.....Mr. Gilbert Hunt Captain.....Kingsley Kuhney

Coach Hunt produced a very strong and successful rifle team this season. To date, the gun-toting Indians have won 5 and lost 1, having three more meets in the '51-'52 season.

This year's rifle team has a very excellent opportunity for capturing the C.C.I.L. title. Two of the three remaining teams have already been beaten by Manchester, namely, Meriden and Windham. Loomis High, the last scheduled match, is not in C.C.I.L. competition.

Our only loss was to Loomis, by the score of 914 to 857. We beat the Alumni 871 to 812, Windham 873 to 760, Middletown 849 to 828, Meriden 803 to 679, and Middletown 889 to 820.

Two 1950 records were broken in the Middletown match. A score of 889 for a team total topped the previous 886 mark. Also broken was the 5-man off-hand record of 404, bettered by 11 points, making the new record 415.

The 1952-'53 rifle team will be nearly made up of this year's juniors. The captain will be lost to graduation, but there are many able reserves to round out what should prove to be a very successful year for 1953.

The "Indians" started the 1951 baseball season by losing a squeaker to Bristol High, 2-3 at the West-Side Oval.

However, the locals outlasted Middletown, in their next effort, 10-0, to gain their initial win of the season.

A temporary slump hit the home club, and they dropped the next two games which were on the road, 3-4 and 0-9, respectively, to Hall and Meriden.

The club started to hit and the pitching held in the next contest, which was against Rockville. The locals socked Rockville to the tune of 7-4 and this victory started a seven-game winning streak.

In this winning streak, the next two games, which were at home against Hamden and Rockville, were captured by the respective scores of 12-11 and 4-2. The Indians got revenge for the first game loss to Bristol by dumping them 6-2 at Bristol.

The locals, hitting their stride now, whipped Hall and Meriden in home games, 11-4 and 3-2. They followed these up with their second win over Hamden, 4-2 at Hamden.

Manchester cooled off then, and dropped their next two games to East Hartford and Middletown by the respective scores of 3-6 and 2-9.

However, the "Indians" ended a fine season with a 7-4 licking of East Hartford at home.

The "Indians" amassed a nine win, five loss record to show a successful season.

The locals expect another fine season next year as most of the team will be returning, including next year's captain-elect and ace pitcher, Steve Bellingeri.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The variety of sports offered at M.H.S. this year gave every student an opportunity to participate in an afterschool sport of their choice. Under the leadership of Miss Julia Case and Miss Eleanore Webb, the girls' sports which include swimming, soccer, field hockey, basketball, bowling, volleyball, badminton, tennis, archery, and softball, were capably directed.

Aqua-ettes, the girls' swimming club, met once every week during the year and practiced formation swimming and water ballet as well as diving and stroke improvements.

In the fall, field hockey interested many enthusiasts who practiced techniques once every week during the season.

The soccer group also met after school during the fall during which they played regulation soccer.

Beginner's and advanced archery offered the girls ample chance to show their skill in this sport.

The participants of beginner's tennis learned effective tennis strokes as well as the fundamentals of the game, while the advanced tennis group perfected their techniques and played matches.

New rules, methods of dribbling and passing, and team play were learned by the girls in afterschool basketball. Three teams of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, exhibited their skills when they journeyed to New Britain in January for a basketball playday.

One of the most popular sports of this year was bowling. In the bowling alleys the girls tied for top honor in scoring and attempted to improve their score each week.

After weeks of practice in using the skills of volleyball, the girls journeyed to New Britain, where they played the New Britain team.

As a competition for the badminton season a round robin was held to determine the gravel champion.

The last sport of the school was the favorite, softball. Many girls attended practice in balmy spring days when they practiced pitching, fielding, and hitting.

And this closes another successful page from the girls' sports world.

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace."
