DEDICATION

We, the class of "58" wish to dedicate our yearbook to our successors, the seventh grade. Our fondest hope is that they will enjoy their next year at Barnard Junior High as much as we have enjoyed ours; that they will carry on the many traditions and customs in a manner that will bring great honor to our school.

CLASS WILL

We, the graduating class of "58", being of sound mind, hereby bequeath our most precious possessions as listed:

- To Mr. Johnson and Mr. Bradlau we leave our appreciation and best wishes. To our faculty, we also leave best wishes for the future.
- To the future Student Council President, we leave the ability of Bob Santos.
- To Diane Pallard we leave Pat Daub's cheerleading talent.
- To whomever needs it we leave Dot Bell's friendliness.
- To Ed Doucette we leave some of Gary McConnell's good looks (not that he needs them).
- To Miss Gove's English classes, we leave all of our English assignments. (They weren't too bad, once we settled down to doing them.)
- To Ann Lessner we leave some of Janet Carlson's talkativeness (such a friendly girl).
- To the school at large we leave an empty detention room.
- To the next Sweetheart Hop we leave Albert Judd's dancing ability.
- To Gary Harrison we leave Jim DuBerry's speechmaking ability.
- To Philip Rider we leave Bradford Ashton's ability to draw.
- For public auction we leave Nancy Johnson's school spirit.
- To Miss Lind we leave a class that will shut off showers.
- To Mr. Maccarone we leave a class that can clap rhythms.
- To the on-coming eighth grade we leave our fondest wishes with the hope that they will not only follow in our footsteps, but will surpass us in brains and humor. (Can this be possible?)

In witness thereof we have hereto set our hands and seal at Barnard Junior High School, in the town of Manchester, State of Connecticut, on the seventeenth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine-hundred and fifty-eight, we legally affix our signatures to the lawful document and place thereon our mark "X".

CLASS PROPHECY

The time is 1988—the place is New York Harbor. In exactly two weeks, a reunion of the Barnard class of "58" will take place in Manchester, Connecticut. The members have scattered all over the world. The President of the United States, Larry Jamaitis, and his secretary, Barbara Poulin, are making a world cruise in his luxurious yacht in search of their long-lost Barnard classmates. As they are about to board the yacht, they spot the magnificent boat, the Queen Barnard, owned by the multi-millionaires, Dave and Dan Doll and their partner, Gary McConnell. As the executive and his aid cross the gang-plank, they are besieged by eager reporters. Let us listen now, as the famous reporter of the Manchester Evening Herald, Joyce Doucette, interviews the President and his aid.

"When did you get the idea of having a reunion?" asks Joyce. "Well, it was about two months ago, I ran into Wendy Lawrence, Paulette Nourie, and Sandy Malin, old Barnard acquaintances of mine. We spent the evening together talking over our happy days at Barnard. It was then I decided it would be wonderful if the class could gather to have a reunion."

The reporter asked, "About how many people do you expect at this reunion?" "I'm not sure, but as many as we can possibly contact within the limited number of days," replied President Jamaitis. "I'm sorry, but we have to board the yacht now, since time is running out. We have to leave in thirty minutes." As they boarded, the captain came forth and introduced himself as Greg King. He began introducing the members of his crew. They were Jeff McCormick, chief engineer; Celene Zorskis, pilot; Alice Cooper, head of the entertainment department, and most necessary of all, Doctor Bill Freiheit, and his prize nurse, Joy Joubert. Now, the most popular members of our crew, the famous French chef, Gary Van Ausdall and his indispensable helpers, Rick Oliver and Jim Hunter.

Later that evening the President and the captain took a stroll around the boat. "I can see why Gary is chief chef this year. He's a wonderful cook. Well, I'd better turn in. Good-night," said President Jamaitis. "Good night," said Greg.

The next day, at 2:00, they reached their first destination, Hawaii. There, they expected to find Ellen Hochberg, Nancy Holt, and Peggy Beach as teachers. They had always talked of teaching in Hawaii.

After leaving the boat, they rented one of the exquisite cars owned by Dave Ford. They told the driver to go to the fabulous Neville Hotel on Snyder Avenue. After getting settled, they went to eat lunch. While eating, they came upon a familiar face. Who should it be but Richard Neville.

"What are you doing here," asked the President. "Well, if it isn't Larry Jamaitis! Didn't you know that I own this hotel?"

"No, I didn't. Oh, did you know there is to be a reunion of the "58" class in Manchester? Can you come?"

"I'm sorry, but I will be unable to attend, as I am busy with the affairs of the hotel. By the way, Karen Amaio is here as head nurse at the hospital. I know she won't be able to attend; she has too many patients needing her time."

"Well, one of the most popular girls at Barnard in "58" finally became a nurse."

"Although she and I will be unable to come, Jon Hudson lives in Paris, and I'm pretty sure, he'll attend. Remember, he was a classmate of ours?"

To get to Paris, the Chief Executive and his aid decide to take a plane. They are greeted on the plane by Debbie Miller and Ginny Hadfield, who finally reached their goals as airline hostesses. The plane, owned by Elmyra Tessier, millionairess, is piloted by Elaine Johnson, girl pilot.

When the plane lands they are greeted by the United States Ambassador to France, Rene Girardin. The ambassador directs them to his private car, driven by Jeff Trueman, another classmate. The ambassador wanted to celebrate, so he took many guests, including some more Barnard classmates, Russ Smith, Leslie Carlson, Al Judd, Jimmy Alibrio, Bruce Lavery, Barbara Baker, Sharon Jochim-sen, Gail Prescott, and Mary Goodwin, among others, to the LeMay Cafe, owned by another classmate, Frances LeMay. At the cafe, Gail Johnson took their hats. They were entertained by Sharon Anderson, singer, Carole LaPolt and George-Ann Elia, actresses, and master of ceremonies Tony Alibrio. He introduced Peggy Beach and Sharyn Hogan, pianists, and Gail Ouillette, majorette.

The President visited many other countries of the world and decided, although there could be no reunion, his trip had not been in vain, for he had seen many of his old classmates.

On the trip back to the United States, the President dreamed of the past, the past at good old Barnard Junior High, of his classmates, and of the year 1958.

FAREWELL TO BARNARD

Our Junior High School days are done,
With a heavy sigh we say good-bye;
To friends, teachers, work and fun,
And turn our thoughts to Manchester High.

At Barnard we have been well trained,
For the work we'll have in the future years;
With all this knowledge we have gained,
We go with emotions of joy and fears.

No one knows what the future holds,
And as we struggle on through life;
May we find that elusive "pot of gold,"
In a world that's pleasant and free from strife.

Now, our class in bright array,
With heads held high with pride;
Have reached our graduation day,
And thus march side by side.

This day we'll always remember,
As further education we pursue;
And with a prayer on our lips we will whisper,
For guidance to follow us through.

GATEWAY SPORTS REVIEW

Our memories, as we look back on our two years at Barnard, wouldn't be complete without taking a look at the Sports Review .

A glance at the basketball stars show Gary McConnell, Dave Tupper, Bob Santos, Bill Freiheit, Karen Churilla, and Jessie Gipson.

As for volleyball we have Danny Taylor, Jerry Finn, Jim Benson, Dave Smith, George Treadwell, Gail Prescott, Karen Niles, and Beth Gartside.

Our congratulations are extended to the coaches: Mr. Perry, Mr. Warren, Mr. Edmunson, and to the other fine athletes of Barnard Junior High School!

CLASS HISTORY

Seventh grade, we're here at last,
No more looking at the past.
New faces and new teachers, too,
A lot of homework to struggle through.
Open House was lots of fun
While parents looked at work we had done.
The Christmas vacation seemed all too short,
But it was lots of fun building snowmen and forts
And soon we were back to our familiar resort.
The joke contest brought laughs about school
And everyone then seemed to glow like a jewel.
Talent was exhibited in the usual way
While everyone yelled hip! hip! hurray!
Then the Barnard Spring Hop proved a great success
While boys and girls danced their best.
The basketball game 'tween teachers and students
Was greatly enjoyed by the people who viewed it.
Soon the Red Cross passed out cards to be filled,
Money was used by people who were ill.
And finally sports day rolled around
Which everyone welcomed with a happy sound.
June came at last with closing in sight,
And everyone yelled "Vacation" with delight.
Summer vacation sure was swell,
Here we are awaiting the opening bell.
We all made eighth grade safe and sound.
Then Open House night rolled around.
Thanksgiving time came, now for a rest.
Soon back to school to do our best.
Christmas vacation sure was swell,
But we were back for the sounding bell.
Back to school and a Red Cross Drive
To collect money we all did strive.
The Science Fair sure was great,
Not an article was turned in late.
The Sweetheart Swing brought great delight.
Who will ever forget that night?
The next episode in our life here,

Is something that is very clear.
We had a dance, 'twas called the Hop.
We had so much fun we hated to stop.
We had a Spring Concert by the seventh and eighth.
In Mr. Maccarone we had such faith.
We always knew it would be a success.
On that we would not have to guess.
A talent show came next in line;
We have to admit it was very fine.
There were dancers, singers, piano players, too.
The talent seemed to be fresh and new.
Graduation was our next big thrill,
Filling us with an exciting chill.
The Graduation Dance was the best of all,
Boy! We had one beautiful ball.
And thus we have reached the end of our tale,
To say we enjoyed Barnard, how could we fail?
It's forward and onward to new heights we go
Leaving memories behind us that will grow and grow.

IN APPRECIATION

To Mr. Johnson, our principal, and Mr. Bradlau, our assistant principal, we wish to express our appreciation for their supervision in guiding us throughout our junior high years.

To Mrs. Hotkowski, we also would like to express our thanks for her help in our guidance.

To our Faculty, which has given us so much time and patience in our school work and outside activities we wish to express our appreciation.

To Bob Santos and Tony Alibrio and members of the Student Council we wish to extend our thanks for the fine job they have done this year.

To Miss Walker and Mr. Fisher for helping to make our dances a big success, and to the parents and teachers who gave their time to chaperone them we are much indebted.

We would also like to extend our appreciation to the cafeteria ladies and custodians for the many all important "little things" that they have so graciously done for us during our stay at Barnard Junior High.

GATEWAY TO SUCCESS

- JAMES ABERT—8F—"Jimmy"—Choral Ensemble 8; A real singer fits Jimmy to a "T" for he loves to sing and has a very good voice. Jim's hobby is Indian Lore Models. Jim's sense of humor has made him lots of friends at Barnard. Jimmy would like to take a college course at M. H. S., and later become a professional singer. We're sure you'll succeed in this field, Jim!
- MARTHA ADAMSON—8M—"Marty"—Glee Club 7-8; If ever in need of help you can always count on Marty. Her hobbies are roller and ice skating. She plans to become a secretary. Only the best in life can happen to such a wonderful person.
- GAIL ADAMY—8N—Water Safety 7; Home Economics 7; Music Appreciation 8; Glee Club 8; "Always laughing, full of fun" best describes our friend Gail. Her main interest is collecting miniature dog statues. Gail plans to take a business course at M. H. S. and then become a secretary. Much luck to you, Gail!
- ANTHONY ALIBRIO—8J—"Tony"—Officiating 7; Red Cross 8; Student Council 8; Tony is a most popular member of our school. He is known by everyone. Tony is vice-president of Student Council and is doing a wonderful job. His hobby is building model airplanes. He plans to take a college course next year. We know M. H. S. is gaining a mighty fine pupil.
- JAMES ALIBRIO—8D—"Jimmy"—Audio-visual 7 & 8; Student Council 7; Choral Ensemble 8; "Life is not so short but there is always time for courtesy"—that's our Jimmy. Jim wears a smile every day and is always bright and cheerful. He spends his spare time collecting old coins. James' future plans are to take a college course at M. H. S. and then go into the field of science. Our best wishes are with you, Jim!
- PHYLLIS ALLARD—8E—"Phyl"—Water Safety 8; Phyllis is what you might call a regular fish when it comes to swimming. This sport is her hobby as well as a club. She plans to become a nurse. Good luck in the future, Phyl!
- WILLARD ALLEN—8E—"Willy"—Art 7; Ballroom Dancing 8; "A man of gladness seldom falls into madness" is a quotation which describes Willy. Stamp collecting and collecting of model boats fill Willy's leisure time. He plans to become a dentist. Much luck in the future, Willy!
- KAREN AMAIO—8D—"Cookie"—Music Appreciation 8; Choral Ensemble 8; Cookie's wonderful personality has rated her tops with her fellow classmates. She enjoys dancing and Girl Scouts. Karen would like to become a nurse. We know you will be successful in whatever you do!
- DAVID ANDERSON—8O—"Andy"—Chess; Audio-visual; "Silence is golden" applies to Andy. His pastimes are trains and working on cars. His future plans consist of being a carpenter. Best of lucky, Andy!
- DAVID E. ANDERSON—8E—"Dave"—Bowling, Dancing, Officiating. Dave has a pleasing personality and is generally liked by all he meets. His hobby is baseball and "things like that". He plans to take a college course at M. H. S. Good luck to a fine classmate, Dave!
- PRISCILLA ANDERSON—8M—"Pris"—Glee Club 8; Quiet and well mannered is our friend Pris. Skating is her hobby. She plans to work in her parents' store in the future. Best of luck, Pris!
- SHARON ANDERSON—8F—Girls' Glee Club 7; Choral Ensemble 8; Yearbook 8; Sharon's pleasing personality has won her many friends at Barnard Junior High. Her hobbies are sewing, swimming, skating and playing the piano. She plans to take a college course at Manchester High and later would like to attend William and Mary College to prepare to become an English teacher. Best of luck in the future, Sharon!
- RONALD ANDRASH—8H—"Ronnie"—Cooking 7; Reading Improvement 8; "Still water runs deep." We wonder if this fits Ronnie. His hobbies are archery, baseball, swimming, and he takes a special interest in horses. Ronnie plans to take a college course but otherwise his plans are undecided. Good luck in whatever you decide, Ronnie!
