MANCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL SOMANHIS

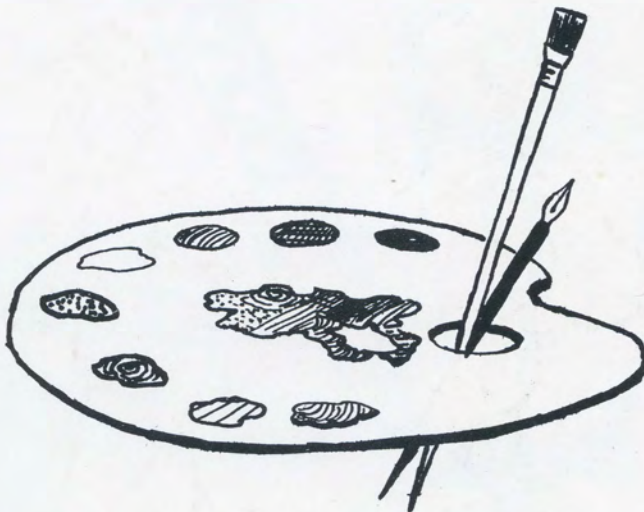

VOLUME XLIII MANCHESTER CONNECTICUT

FOREWORD

1958 marks the second year of our occupancy of our new high school plant. It has become the center of our educational, extra-curricular, and much of our social life. It is "our world".

Let us now view "our world" through the lenses of cameras, the pens of the writers, and the brushes of the cartoonists as they have reproduced it on the pages of this Somanhis.

DEDICATION

These are our worlds. One is centered here in Manchester High School, the other is the world we are about to enter. It is this adult world where we must put to use the knowledge, skills, and social behavior that we have acquired in high school for the betterment of ourselves and humanity.

With these thoughts in mind, we dedicate this Somanhis to our two worlds — this scholastic world we are leaving and the world of business, service or college which we will each enter according to our choice.

CLASS SONG

The time has come for fif-ty - eight to leave Man-ches-ter High. The mem-o-ries that we hold dear are slow-ly pass-ing by. We've tried to do our ver-y best thru all our high school days. We leave you now with sad-ness as we go our sep-a-rate ways.

M.H.S. PUBLICATIONS

Under the leadership of Mr. Russell T. Harrington, the Manchester High School Publications Staff took on the great responsibility of soliciting advertisements from the various merchants throughout Manchester for the Somanhis.

They secured Somanhis and Quill subscriptions, distributed the yearbook and the bi-annual school magazine, and handled all the finances involved.

The staff requests that the students of Manchester High School patronize the Merchants of Manchester who have contributed their advertisements to the yearbook.

HIGH SCHOOL WORLD

The High School World, organized in the year 1934, has worked efficiently for twenty-four years to record the activities of the school and the achievements of individual students.

Directed by Miss Helen Estes, and edited by Janet Flavell, each staff member was assigned a sport, club, a teacher's class, as a "beat" and was occasionally given special assignments.

The High School World, through the pages of the Manchester Evening Herald, has presented to the townspeople many of the activities which high schools have taken part, both as extracurricula and classroom work.

Meetings were held every Friday in the World office. The members attended the Connecticut Scholastic Press Convention held at the University of Connecticut in October.

The officers for the year were: Editor, Janet Flavell; Co-Editor Barbara Duncan.

TENNIS TEAM

The Tennis Team, under the coaching of Mr. Matthew Maetozo, had a good season of seven wins and four losses. Forty members met in the gym or the tennis courts to practice the game.

The purpose of the team was to promote participation and sportsmanship in the sport of tennis. Co-captains for the season were Madis Raudsepp and Richard Yules.

GIRLS' LEADERS CLUB

The Girls' Leaders Club, under the supervision of Miss Julia Case, Miss Martha Peterson, and Mrs. June Brady, met in the gym on the first Friday of each month.

The club was composed of seventy members from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The girls learned to develop responsibility and to enrich their leadership.

This year the group supplied food and gifts to a needy family at Christmas time. They also practiced in precision work for the annual Physical Education Assembly, and officiated at intramural games.

The officers for the year 1957-58 were: Suzanne Edwards, President; Donna Sandals, Vice-president; Karin Pearson, Secretary-treasurer.

AQUAETTES

The Aquettes, under the direction of Mrs. June R. Brady, met every Thursday afternoon until four p.m. in the swimming pool. To develop swimming stunts and a sense of rhythm by swimming to music were the aims of the Aquettes. They presented a water ballet for the members of the P.T.O. on January 13. A water ballet for parents and friends was presented on January 29.

Officers for the year 1957-58 were: Gail Eagleson, President; Linda Nelson, Vice-president and Historian; Jane Tarca, Secretary; Jean Kerrigan, Treasurer.

... we develop body co-ordination.

GIRLS' TUMBLING CLUB

"To develop body co-ordination and physical fitness" was the objective of the Tumbling Club. Miss Julia Case and Miss Martha Peterson, club directors, assisted the girls in the club with various tumbling stunts in preparation for the annual Manchester High School Tumbling Exhibition. Among the stunts practiced were walk-overs, elbow stands, and head and hand stands.
