FOREWORD

Our ancestors of long ago
Would be amazed if they could know
What wondrous thing that man has done
He's built a satellite for one.
He plans to conquer outer space
And maybe find a brand new race.
Who knows but maybe someday soon
We'll all be living on the moon.
Men of science what you have done
Promise that marvels will be won.

DEDICATION

Those who've been graduated before us
Have left us proud reputations.
The time has come when we ourselves
Must fulfill our great expectations.
Excelling in various fields,
We all can respect their reliance;
Be they teachers, preachers, or others,
Or noblest of all, men of science.
And in the future some of us
Will go ahead to demonstrate
Our talents as great scientists —
To those this book we dedicate.

"They develop character"

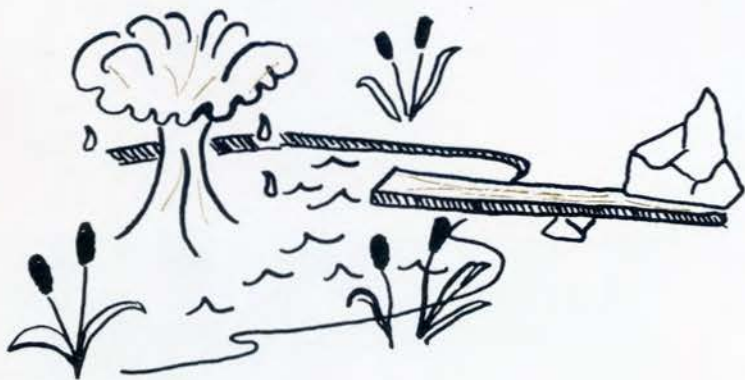

GIRLS LEADERS' CLUB

Girls' Leaders Club, under the guidance of Miss Julia Case, Miss Martha Peterson, and Miss Arden Curtis, met on the first Friday of every month. The purpose of the club was to assist gym teachers in their classes and to help in the intramural sports program, as well as to develop qualities of leadership.

Activities for the year included a collection for a needy family at Christmas, and the formation of a drill team.

Officers for the year 1958-1959 were: Karin Pearson, President; Valerie Johnson, Vice-President; Paula Adams, Treasurer; and Nancy Cooley, Secretary.

AQUAETTES

Under the direction of Miss Arden L. Curtis, the Aquaettes met every Thursday afternoon at the school pool. The purpose of the thirty-three members was to learn to swim with rhythmic timing and synchronized strokes in time with music. They presented a Water Ballet for the members of the P.T.O.

This year's officers were: Janice Clark, President; Susan Carter, Vice-President; Jean Martin, Secretary; and Daneen Renn, Treasurer.

THE M.H.S. PROM

The multicolored decorations of orange and brown accented the theme, "Harvest Moon," of the Annual M.H.S. Prom held on November 8, 1959. Susan Buckley reigned as queen. The numerous students in attendance made the prom a huge success.

VARSITY "M" CLUB DANCE

A night club atmosphere permeated the school gymnasium as the Varsity "M" Club held its annual dance on February 7, 1959. Paris with its continental flavor formed the central theme for the dance and for its decorations. By attending the dance, the many couples present helped the Varsity "M" Club in its scholarship drive.
