AFS

Mary Cutts

Defined as a "crash course in growing up" by a former AFSer, this year has been that and so much more. From Australian Sydney suburbia and the strict conformity of a small girls' school, I was thrown upon MHS. I was faced with new philosophies, attitudes and approaches. But time brought real international friendship and the "funny talking foreigner" became at home from hockey field to History class. This just doesn't happen in a new country but has been the result of what so many people have done for me. Thanks so much to administrators, teachers and students.

Above all else my American family has been the focal point of my year. The Kolbes of Henry Street will always be a part of me.

Thanks everyone for a year of "walking together, talking together." Yes, I'd love to come back and visit some day, but maybe one day you will escape to the great land "down under". There is always a warm "Orana" at 111 Burdett Street, Hornsby, New South Wales.

Mary Cutts
Australian AFSer

Miss Van Lente

AFS is . . .

. . . an experience as unique as birth itself, for the AFS program has the ability to reshape a person and show him life as he never before imagined it.

. . . understanding between people of completely foreign backgrounds. Whether differences are those of race, language, or traditional customs, AFS helps to dissolve these barriers to make people feel their common bond.

. . . the helpful hand or comforting word that turns love for one person into love for all people.

. . . hope for the future.

Crippled by a lack of experience due to a year's absence, the Varsity Wrestling Team posted a 0-10-1 record. Stamina, dedication and courage were characteristics of this year's team, a source of pride for the entire school.

Individuals attained impressive personal records in their first years of Wrestling. Scott Kelley and Richard Lescroart beat a number of their opponents, while Scott Johnson won praise for his 4-5-0 record.

EMPAINNESS EXISTS, WHERE YESTERDAY,

I LAUGHED

MIND EXPANSION IS AN ETERNAL TASK OF SOCIETY
OUR GOAL
AS INDIVIDUALS IS NOT ONLY THE ACQUISITION OF EACH'S
~~BEHIND THE SCENES~~
EVALUATION OF IDEAS

ROWS OF LINES MOVING COMPACTLY
SCREAMS OF ORDERLY THOUGHT FUNNELLED INTO ACTION AND THE END IS THE BEGINNING.

THAT INTANGIBLE
ALL CONSUMING
SPIRIT PERVADES A HAZY AFTERNOON
DRAWN TOGETHER
BEHIND A COMMON CAUSE, WE ARE, AS THEY SAY BEAUTIFUL.

WAR IS NOT healthy for children and other living things

CAN THE DEAD
WORK FOR PEACE; OR ARE WE LEFT TO STRIVE FOR THEM,
BECAUSE OF THEM.
WE MUST LEARN WHY
[IF A REASON EXISTS]
THEY HAVE DIED
OR WHY
[IF NO REASON EXISTS]
THEY NO LONGER LIVE.

LIKE A DESERETED BEACH, THE EMPTINESS PROVIDES MY MIND WITH TIME TO EVALUATE
MY MICROSCOPIC REALITY ON THE UNIVERSE

I DO NOT NEED TO FIND A CROWD I NEED TO FEEL MY-SELF WHEN I AM AMONG PEOPLE I MUST BE ABLE TO SEE
NOT JUST A REFLECTION OF WHAT THEY SEE
TO LIVE WITH OTHERS
TO LIVE WITH OTHERS TO DISCOVER WHO I AM
