SOMANHIS
72

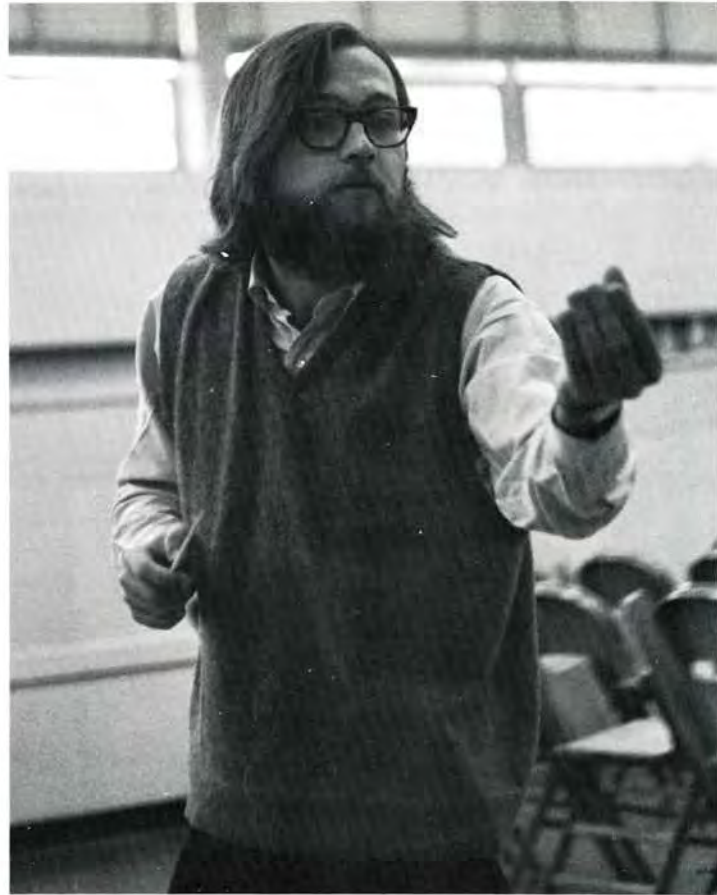

it isn't happiness
i appear to
show you
nor am i grinning
with complete
satisfaction
just
life
brimming
in
drooling bubbles

this here
is a tree
in case you don't know
and when the
man says it's
green
it's green
kid,
you'd better
listen.

it's quite irrelevant
to say it's
purple
and plopping
up with the
grace and
divinity
of spring

this is just a tree
a green tree
i don't think
you've ever
seen
one

sitting face to face
corpse to corpse
there is so much
that i could
reveal to you

yet, how can one mind
release its valued
contents
to a flat face
and impermeable eyes?

i realize you
acknowledge
my existence
but i fail to see
the recognition
of myself in you.

you told me
i could trust
in your soul.
don't say that
to me.
i'd rather sit
and watch your eyes
than unveil
my words.

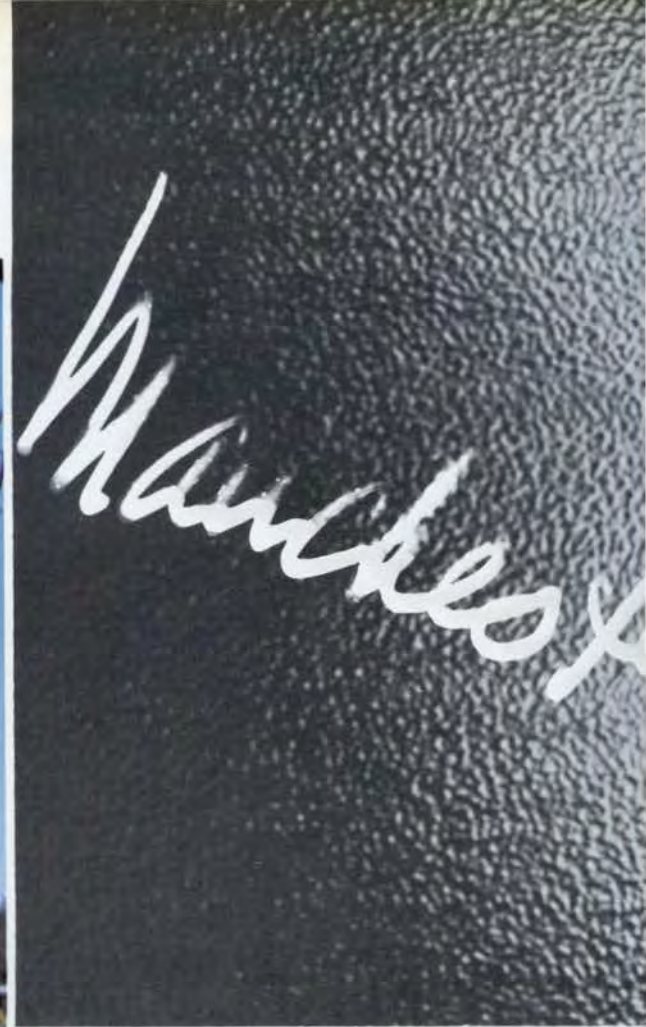

i wish
that you
would
take away
my magnifying glass
so i could see
how small i am
and how
wrong
i will always be.

it's depressing
to discover
that your fantasy
is merely
a reflection
a rejection
of your
love.

sometimes the
kinds of goodbyes
most meaningful
are the tiny silent ones
given in passing
for they become the

ACTIVITIES

How can one possibly describe something as intangible as an AFS experience? It is so much more than the mere physical aspects of a new country, new customs, new sights, and a totally new way of life. It is also maturing, adapting, learning to accept others, close family relationships, and the development of a new set of values on life.

It is the happiness of new friendships and the sorrow of the end-of-summer good-byes. My experience physically ended on September second when I returned to the States, however, the knowledge of life that I gained, the culture I have learned, the maturity I have acquired, and the friendships I have established will be with me forever.

It has been the most exciting experience in my life, to come to a foreign country and share a new experience with a lovely American family and community, and a very different school, full of perspectives and enthusiasm for its future, with hundreds of nice kids who I have enjoyed very much.

All the plans I made many months ago have been only the beginning of all kind of wonderful moments once I dreamt to live here. This experience is coming and going so fast, that I feel I'll go back to my country very soon, but I'll leave my heart and my love to all of you, and keep Manchester in me forever.

I have realized the incomparable value of learning to live, share, understand and accept people like they are, and that it's really worth working with the A.F.S. Exchange Program, to let young people from all over the world live in a foreign country. Help A.F.S. to help you.

I hope you will be able to fly to Ecuador and enjoy that small paradise as much as I have enjoyed the USA. If so, contact me.

Look down; see where you've been

and smile

Then move on up . . .

For looking back too long

is the beginning

... of many ends
