Foreword

It is our earnest desire to herein present a simple record of our high school life of 1928-9. To the members of the class of 1929 we hope it will be a life-long reminder of never-to-be-forgotten days. May it prove to be a worthy link in the chain of memories that previous issues of Somanhis Events have wrought.

CLASS SONG

Unchanging, unfailing those gifts
Alma Mater bestows on us all,
As she sets us forth on life's highway
To answer with honor life's call.

To each gives she hope, strength and knowledge
As the depth of true friendship is tried;
To each gives she mem'ries to cherish
And her love and her care as a guide.

Twenty-nine, may she often look backward
'Cross the vista of many a year;
May there live in the heart of each comrade
The mem'ries of joy and of cheer.

This 1929 Commencement issue marks the termination of thirteen successful years of the publication of Somanhis Events. During these years each succeeding staff has made some important improvement in the book to keep pace with the growth of the school.

The staff hopes that the changes that have been made in the year-book will prove to be another milestone in the progress of Somanhis Events. This book is the final work of the Somanhis Events Staff of 1929, and it is through this book that we have sought to make a standard for judging our achievements.
